

ATLANTA NUMBER OF THE ROTARIAN IS OUT

Regular March Issue Is Devoted Largely to Atlanta and Vicinity

The "Atlanta Number" of the Rotarian, official organ of the International Association of Rotary clubs, has just reached this city. It is the regular March issue, but is devoted largely to Atlanta and vicinity. Each monthly issue of this magazine features some city that has a large and aggressive Rotary club. It has a circulation of 16,000 and is distributed almost exclusively among the more prominent business men of each city.

The front cover is most attractive. It depicts a comprehensive view of the center of the city, many of the most prominent office buildings showing in the distance. The main street scene is that of Peachtree street from the viaduct to the Candler building. The Peace monument with the single word "Atlanta" inscribed on the base occupies the foreground. Underneath appears the line, "Fifty Years of Peace and Plenty."

On the inside of the front cover the number of contributors has a full page advertisement headed "Why is Atlanta?" This recites briefly, but effectively, the advantages of the city as a commercial and manufacturing center, as well as a place of residence. The frontispiece is that of a busy street scene looking up Peachtree street from Marietta street and entitled "The Heart of Atlanta." Then follows an appropriate poem, "Fifty Years of Peace and Plenty," contributed by Frank L. Stanton.

Naturally, the feature article is an interesting resume of Atlanta's history. This is profusely illustrated. Some of the scenes show portions of the city at the close of the war, attention being called to the fact that the same ground is now occupied by skyscrapers. Particular stress is laid on the city's altitude and health. Then follows terse statements of the city's business life—post-office, railways, banks, manufacturing, schools and public buildings.

A timely and interesting article entitled "Courtship Public Favor," is contributed by Preston S. Ackers, who explains some of the difficulties incident to the street railway business; that of the manner in which the Georgia Railway and Electric company handles not only the everyday crowds, but those in attendance at conventions and other big public gatherings.

John E. Allen, president of the Atlanta convention bureau, contributes an article under the heading "Hunting Big Game in Conventions." He writes from actual experience. The significance of the work of Mr. Allen and his associates can be best appreciated when it is considered that Atlanta played hostess to its conventions during 1914.

H. G. Hastings concludes the Atlanta section of this magazine with a most interesting and informative article entitled "The Agriculture of the Great South-west." He emphasizes the great natural advantages of soil and climate, and predicts that she will yet enjoy the greatest prosperity of any section of the whole country.

Practically every member of the Atlanta Rotary club assisted in making this magazine a success. Several members contributed articles of both practical and historical value, while the majority utilized space with strong advertisements of their business. The greatest credit, however, is due to A. S. Adams, president, and to L. D. Hicks, secretary of the Atlanta Rotary club. For the past three months they have devoted much of their time and energy to getting matters in shape for publication.

OUT FOR A STROLL
With no companion but a Kodak, Well, a good book, is a good friend. John L. Moore & Sons, the opticians, have all the latest styles, 42 N. Broad St.—(Adv.)

NEGRO STEALS HANDBAG AND MAKES HIS ESCAPE

Mrs. Ida H. Brantley, 255 Whitehall street, reported to the police Monday evening that her handbag, containing her purse, $15 in bills, some change and some notes, was snatched from her near Whitehall and Wood streets Monday evening while on her way home. She saw a negro man jump out of an alley, grabbed her bag, then ran up the alley and escaped.

She screamed for assistance and busily summoned the police, who failed to discover any trace of the negro.

ONE FALSE NOTE
in music spoils the effect of the whole composition. It may be as clear and pure as any of the others, but it will not harmonize with the whole.

One false line in a suit of clothes makes a discord which spoils the effect of the suit. Every line must harmonize with the others to make an artistic whole.

Each of our tailored suits is built as a whole to fit our customers. They have an appearance and a "feel" that cannot be duplicated in a "ready-made" suit.

Our Spring and Summer Woollens await your inspection.

Prices $25 to $60

PIERSON & OXFORD

TAILORS 34 1/4 Peachtree

BILLIE BURKE in street costume, and a picture within a picture of Billie Burke in character. Auto-graphed photos of the pretty actress are being sold at the Atlanta theater during her engagement there, the proceeds going to the fund for the Belgian war sufferers.

JAMES WATSON, NOTED SPORT WRITER, IS DEAD

(By Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, March 9.—James Watson, for more than thirty years a leading authority on the breeding of high-class dogs and a judge of big kennel shows, died here yesterday. He was sixty-three years old.

Mr. Watson was one of the best posted sport writers in the country. After working on several New York papers, he joined the staff of the Philadelphia Press as sporting editor. He was one of the first judges of whippet races and was the official timer at the Gloucester race track, and the first secretary of the National Association of Amateur Gamblers.

For the last fifteen years he had devoted his time to writing and acting as judge at the dog shows at Philadelphia, Boston and New York.

FLOYD ASSOCIATION OF FARMERS PICKS OFFICERS

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
ROME, Ga., March 9.—At the annual meeting of the Farmers' Cooperative Association of Floyd county, G. H. Miller was elected president; W. L. Selman, vice president; John P. Davis, secretary, and W. W. Berry, treasurer.

Ender Bound Over
Frank Ender, a young man about eighteen years old, was bound over by Judge Thomas of the Municipal court, Monday morning for the theft of an automobile.

Ender is alleged to have taken the automobile of P. T. Hembree, of Roswell, Ga., and drove it to Columbus, Ga., where he was caught. Mr. Hembree and Deputy Lester, of the Municipal court, went to Columbus and brought him back in the machine. Judge Thomas fixed his bond at $750.

Mrs. Armor at Eastman
(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
EASTMAN, Ga., March 9.—Mrs. Mary Harris Armor, the famous Woman's Christian Temperance union worker, delivered her lecture on "The Liquor Traffic" at the Methodist church here Sunday evening.

SUFFRAGE ASSOCIATION OF ROME HOLDS ELECTION

ROME, Ga., March 9.—The Rome Women's Suffrage association has elected the following officers for the coming year.

President, Miss Madeline J. S. Wyle; first vice president, Miss Addie Mitchell; second vice president, Mrs. H. H. Shackleton; recording secretary, Mrs. T. B. White; treasurer, Mrs. Charles E. Pinner; corresponding secretary, Mrs. H. W. Morton; auditor, Mrs. J. H. O'Neill.

For the last fifteen years he had devoted his time to writing and acting as judge at the dog shows at Philadelphia, Boston and New York.

Practically every member of the Atlanta Rotary club assisted in making this magazine a success. Several members contributed articles of both practical and historical value, while the majority utilized space with strong advertisements of their business. The greatest credit, however, is due to A. S. Adams, president, and to L. D. Hicks, secretary of the Atlanta Rotary club. For the past three months they have devoted much of their time and energy to getting matters in shape for publication.

OUT FOR A STROLL
With no companion but a Kodak, Well, a good book, is a good friend. John L. Moore & Sons, the opticians, have all the latest styles, 42 N. Broad St.—(Adv.)

NEGRO STEALS HANDBAG AND MAKES HIS ESCAPE

Mrs. Ida H. Brantley, 255 Whitehall street, reported to the police Monday evening that her handbag, containing her purse, $15 in bills, some change and some notes, was snatched from her near Whitehall and Wood streets Monday evening while on her way home. She saw a negro man jump out of an alley, grabbed her bag, then ran up the alley and escaped.

She screamed for assistance and busily summoned the police, who failed to discover any trace of the negro.

ONE FALSE NOTE
in music spoils the effect of the whole composition. It may be as clear and pure as any of the others, but it will not harmonize with the whole.

One false line in a suit of clothes makes a discord which spoils the effect of the suit. Every line must harmonize with the others to make an artistic whole.

Each of our tailored suits is built as a whole to fit our customers. They have an appearance and a "feel" that cannot be duplicated in a "ready-made" suit.

Our Spring and Summer Woollens await your inspection.

Prices $25 to $60

PIERSON & OXFORD

TAILORS 34 1/4 Peachtree

Each of our tailored suits is built as a whole to fit our customers. They have an appearance and a "feel" that cannot be duplicated in a "ready-made" suit.

Our Spring and Summer Woollens await your inspection.

Prices $25 to $60

PIERSON & OXFORD

TAILORS 34 1/4 Peachtree

Each of our tailored suits is built as a whole to fit our customers. They have an appearance and a "feel" that cannot be duplicated in a "ready-made" suit.

Our Spring and Summer Woollens await your inspection.

Prices $25 to $60

PIERSON & OXFORD

TAILORS 34 1/4 Peachtree

PROSPECTS ARE BRIGHT FOR FINE OPERA SEASON

Local and Mail Order Sales to Date Exceedingly Satisfactory

"It looks like a fine opera season," said Treasurer C. B. Bidwell of the Atlanta Music Festival association Tuesday. He had just returned from a visit to the music stores of the Cable Piano company and the Phillips & Crew Co., where season opera tickets are on sale.

"To judge from the local sale and from the number of mail orders we are receiving, the 1915 visit of the Metropolitan will be entirely successful," said Mr. Bidwell. "A study of the program with the list of singers gives assurance of an artistic success, and the directors are confident that the week will be equally successful from a financial standpoint."

The sale of season tickets will continue through March 21, and seats for single performances will go on sale on April 25.

LABORING MEN TO HOLD MASS MEETING MARCH 21

Plans for Labor Forward Movement Will Be Discussed at Gathering

A big mass meeting of all the laboring men of Atlanta has been announced in connection with the labor forward movement inaugurated several weeks ago. This mass meeting is to be held at the Atlanta theater No. 2 Sunday afternoon, March 21.

John B. Lennon, treasurer of the American Federation of Labor, has been invited to deliver the principal address. Other men prominent in the labor cause will make speeches and there will be an interesting and entertaining program. The Musicians' union has volunteered a band for the meeting.

Full appreciation of the labor forward movement here has been manifested by the American Federation of Labor which to Atlanta 16 aid in the work. Preliminary to the big mass meeting many of the local labor unions are holding open meetings.

PLAN LAW LIBRARY FOR COURT HOUSE

Acting on the suggestion of Walter McElreath, the practice and administration committee of the Atlanta bar association will meet Tuesday afternoon at the office of Chairman Burton Smith and will discuss plans for the installation of a law library in the new court house.

Special Notice!

BOTH

are wrapped in

UNITED PROFIT-SHARING COUPONS

These coupons are good for valuable merchandise — nearly 1000 articles for men, women, children and the household. You can save these coupons from many standard high-grade, trade-marked products now sold throughout the country on the Profit-Sharing plan.

Save the Coupons—Get the Presents!

WRIGLEY'S brings the coupons rapidly when you make these wholesome, beneficial, economical confections your daily aids to teeth, breath, appetite and digestion.

Write for free copy of "WRIGLEY'S MOTHER GOOSE" — introducing the Sprightly "Spearmint" Fun for young and old, and a reminder of the "Perfect Gum in the Perfect Package."

WM. WRIGLEY JR. CO.,
1201 Kesner Building, Chicago 601

Bass Dry Goods Co.

MORE NEW

Spring Suits

$9.90 More new Spring Suits; poplins, coverts, gabardines, serges, etc., made newest styles, new circular skirts; worth $25.00, at $9.90

New Spring Dresses

$6.90 Ladies' handsome Spring Dresses; serges, silk poplins, satins, messaline, etc., dresses worth up to $15.00, at $6.90

MORE LADIES' HANDSOME SPRING SUITS

AT $14.95 Ladies' newest Spring Suits, including the new Silk Poplin Suits, latest styles, best materials; suits worth up to $35 $14.95

CHINA SILK NEW SPRING Shirtwaists House Dresses

Newest spring styles China Silk Shirtwaists, made to sell for $2.50; limit one, at only 69c Ladies' new Spring Percale and Madras House Dresses, worth $1.50, to sell Wednesday at 49c

NEW SPRING SILKS

29c New Spring Silks; cords, brocades, wash silks, plain silks; in all colors, at yard 29c

FINE BED SPREADS

69c One hundred new full size Mar-seilles pattern Bed Spreads, worth $1.50 to $2.00; Wednesday special at 69c

BARGAINS

Fine French Percale 5c Two cases yard-wide Percaloes, in new light and dark patterns, all kinds, at 5c

Sale New Gingham 5c One case new Gingham, worth and made to sell for 10c, special at 5c

Yard-Wide Bleaching 5c Two cases full yard-wide Bleaching, worth 12 1/2c, limit 10 yards, at 5c

RUG BARGAINS

Grass Rugs 19c Full 18x36-inch Willow Grass Rugs, special for Wednesday, at 19c

Crex Squares $5.90 New 9x12-ft. Crex and Grass Squares, in new patterns, at $5.90

Grass Squares $2.98 Full 6x9-ft. Grass and Crex Squares, in new patterns, worth $5, at $2.98

Art Squares $7.90 Full 9x12-ft. Brussels Art Squares, in new, bright patterns, at $7.90

SALE IRON BEDS

$1.98 One hundred Iron Beds, worth $5.00, to sell Wednesday at $1.98

COTTON MATTRESS

$1.98 One hundred 45-pound All-cotton Mattresses, roll edge; last chance, only 100 left, at $1.98

Bass Dry Goods Co. Bass Dry Goods Co.

DEATH CLAIMS ANOTHER OF MADMAN'S VICTIMS

Gunner Tolnes Dies at Brunswick of Wounds Infllicted by Monroe Phillips

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
BRUNSWICK, Ga., March 9.—The eighth death as the result of the rampage here Saturday when Monroe Phillips ran amok, armed with a repeating shotgun, occurred when Gunner Tolnes, a young bank collector, died at the city hospital today at noon.

Although Tolnes had been shot through the lungs, physicians until this morning had thought that he would recover.

He was only nineteen years old and very popular.

Besides his father, H. O. Tolnes, he is survived by two brothers, Trygve Tolnes, a law student at the University, and Olaf Tolnes, a lawyer, at Athens.

SOLICITOR DORSEY IS BUSY WITH FRANK CASE

Solicitor Hugh Dorsey, who returned Monday from New York, after an absence of two weeks, was busy Tuesday preparing a summary of the authorities cited in the state's brief at the next Frank case hearing before the United States supreme court in Washington. This summary will be sent to the supreme court as soon as it is finished. Its purpose is to aid the court in reviewing the many cases referred to in the state's brief.

FOUR NEGROES HELD FOR ROBBING GROCERY CO.

Draymen for Adams & Co. Stole $5,000 Worth of Goods, Charge

Four negroes employed as draymen of E. L. Adams & Co., wholesale grocers, Tuesday morning pleaded guilty in recorder's court to systematically stealing cigars, plug tobacco and other salable goods from the company's store at No. 1 Washington street, and were bound over to the higher court under bonds of $100 each.

They gave their names as Tom Moreland, Charles Dorcas, Charles Sullivan and Rich Cunningham.

With them were bound over two other negroes and two whites on the charge of receiving stolen goods.

E. L. Adams, president of the company, told Recorder Johnson that inventories of the company's stock covering a period of twelve months disclosed $5,000 worth of goods to be missing.

MRS. BEASLEY, AGE 98,
DIES AT EAST LAKE

Mrs. Margaret Beasley, ninety-eight years old, died at her residence at East Lake, Tuesday morning at 3:30 o'clock. She is survived by her daughter, Mrs. O. J. Neal and Mrs. Pamie Bowden, and one son, John Beasley. The body was removed to Folsom's chapel and will be carried to Madison, Ga., for funeral and interment.

Fire Destroys Store

The one-story house and store of C. W. Burch, 418 Marietta street, was destroyed by fire about 7 o'clock Tuesday morning. The fire is said to have originated from a defective fuse.

WAR WILL KEEP PERA STARS OUT OF EUROPE

Many Metropolitan Members Will Remain in U. S. During Summer

NEW YORK, March 9.—For the first time many of the principals of the Metropolitan Opera company expect this year to spend the summer in the United States instead of sailing home in May or June.

The war is responsible. It was said today at the opera house that Italy's entry into the war was sufficiently probable to induce the majority of the Italian singers to abandon any plans for going abroad. The Germans have no means of going home.

General Manager Gatti-Casazza is expected to stay here part of the summer and keep his singers together so he will have no such difficulty in assembling them as he faced last fall.

ALANTA ALUMNI TO CELEBRATE VICTORY

Atlanta has been chosen for the 1916 convention of the Delta Tau Delta fraternity, southern division.

This information was brought to the city by delegates to the 1915 convention just closed in Cincinnati, Ohio.

Atlanta alumni chapter of the fraternity celebrated the victory with a banquet at the Ansley hotel Wednesday night at 7:30 o'clock. Plans for making the convention a roaring success will be completed.

A dance has already been arranged and will be given on April 8.

JITNEY BUS REGISTRATION ORDINANCE GOES OVER

Councilman Lee Admits Mr. Arkwright Aided in Drafting Measure

The completion of the public hearing on the "jitney bus" ordinance was postponed indefinitely Monday afternoon in order that, pending the completion of study legislation on the subject of the electric trolley.

Probably fifty automobile men and prospective "jitney" drivers and several representatives of the Georgia Railway and Power company were present when the council committee on electric and other railways and on streets took up the consideration of the ordinance.

The only incident bordering on the ordinance that the measure had been drafted by himself in collaboration with President P. S. Arkwright, of the power company.

Councilman Claude L. Ashley, pointing out that they had not been given a delay of the hearing by the ordinance, which he said was not a law, but a mere suggestion, and which to base their arguments and other their position.

The power company, on the other hand, he said, "was ready for the hearing with full information about the ordinance. They know the ordinance for they drafted it," he declared.

Chairman Lee of the joint committee, then took the floor and stated that he had drawn the ordinance in collaboration with President Arkwright.

ADAMS MORE TYPING

Attorney John W. Moore, representing the interests who are seeking a charter for a jitney association, urged the committee to give more time, arguing that there is no immediate need for legislation, and declaring that council can much better determine what legislation is necessary after the jitney have been in operation for a short time.

Lindsey Hopkins, chairman of the automobile men, also made a plea for a delay of the hearing.

Councilman Ashley and Ragdale made an effort to postpone the entire hearing, but other members of the committee insisted on proceeding as far as possible during the afternoon.

President Arkwright, of the trolley company, then made a statement, taking up the Lee ordinance paragraph by paragraph and explaining each item.

In urging immediate legislation, Mr. Arkwright asserted that the number of street accidents in Los Angeles, Cal., had increased by 40 per cent since the advent of the jitneys. He referred to statistics in Memphis papers recently by the city government for not regulating the jitneys, and pointing to a case of serious accidents.

He stressed one case where a young woman had been killed by a jitney, whose driver accepted the Lee ordinance at length on this provision. The power company, he said, pays a tax of $120 on each jitney car which it operates in the city of Atlanta.

Mr. Burch, he said, based the records of other cities, should take in $1 a day, or $4,000 per year. A tax of $100 would be 2 1/2 per cent of the amount, yet each trolley car pays a tax of 10 per cent.

Discussing the matter of bonds, which is fixed by the Lee ordinance at $10,000 for the two cars or $20,000 for more than that number, he pointed out that an automobile man would be required to make bonds for damages in the sum of $10,000 as the result of one accident.

A dance has already been arranged and will be given on April 8.

"Allderman Thompson," said Mr. Arkwright, "has summed up the situation, when he said 'jitney buses should be adequately taxed and regulated, not prohibited unless an adequate tax proves prohibitive.' It would probably cost between $10 and $200 a year for a bus to make the bond required by the ordinance to protect the public. If that coupled with the tax is prohibitive, then I should think that it is not a good business and you don't want it here."

MAY ENTER BUSINESS

"But as I have said it doesn't matter to us, if the jitney bus proves a success, as we don't think it will, the Georgia Railway and Power company will be applying to you for permission to operate bus lines in competition with our trolley."

"Would you be willing to operate under this ordinance?" one of the councilmen asked the trolley president.

"Of course I would, but this ordinance would never let me off with anything as light as this," laughed Mr. Arkwright.

Throughout this talk Mr. Arkwright referred to the number of accidents caused by jitneys in other cities.

"In the transportation business," he said, "accidents will occur. They cost us $100,000 a year, and we pay it. We can't run away from it. We want to for our property is here. This ordinance is simply seeking to protect the public in the event a citizen is injured by a bus he can recover adequate damages."

The hearing adjourned at the conclusion of Mr. Arkwright's speech and another date for a meeting was set. However, Chairman Lee stated that the committee would not be called together again until after the next meeting of the city council.

RAID ON DEKALB RECORDS BRINGS OFFER OF REWARD

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
DEKALB, Ga., March 9.—The announcement is made by clerk of the court of DeKalb county, B. F. Burgess, that he offers $200 for the arrest and detention of the party who cut a line of records from two of the record books of the clerk's office. In offering the reward the clerk stated emphatically that he hoped he would have it to pay, meaning that he desired very much to see the party arrested.

ST. PHILIPS ARRANGES SERVICES FOR LENT

Services at St. Philip's Episcopal cathedral for the third week in Lent are announced as follows:

Tuesday—Evening prayer and sermon by the Rev. V. C. Lacey, at 8 p. m.; Thursday—Holy communion at 10:30 a. m.; evening prayer at 8 p. m.; Friday—Children's service; evening prayer and address on the church by the dean at 8 p. m. The public is cordially invited to attend.

A. B. PRELL CELEBRATES SEVENTEENTH BIRTHDAY

Mr. A. B. Prell, of 65 Boulevard terrace, is celebrating his seventeenth birthday today, and is receiving the congratulations of his host of friends and business acquaintances.

Mr. Prell has charge of the children's department of the Globe clothing company, and despite his advanced years, is one of the most active salesmen connected with the store.

He was made the recipient of a handsomely engraved pair of gold cuff buttons by the proprietors and salesmen of the Globe Tuesday morning.

JUDGE BARTLETT HOLDS COURT FOR JUDGE BELL

Judge A. L. Bartlett, of the Tallapoosa circuit, Tuesday took the place of Judge George L. Bell, of Fulton superior court, who is slightly ill at his home. Judge Bartlett, who is well known and well liked by the Atlanta bar, will probably remain in Judge Bell's place the rest of the week.

Will Give Mock Trial

The Brotherhood class of the West End Christian church will give a "mock trial" at the Lee ordinance hearing on Friday evening at 8:15 o'clock.

WILL DISCUSS LIBRARY BRANCH AT BUCKHEAD

At the meeting Wednesday night of the Oglethorpe chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, in the Masonic hall at Buckhead, the establishment of a branch of the Carnegie library at Buckhead will be discussed.

The "Wymadriar" club of Atlanta, composed of past grand chapter officers and past worthy matrons of local chapters, will be present as guests and will assist in the degree work. A musical program will be rendered.

Sue for Damages

Mrs. L. B. Robinson, brought suit in the city court at 11:30 a. m. Tuesday against the Georgia Railway and Power company for injuries alleged to have been received when she stepped off an elevated avenue car at Five Points Sunday, June 7, 1914. L. B. Robinson, her husband, also sued the street railway company for $5,000 for the loss of his wife's services.

Black Snatches Hand Bag

One of the Georgia Railway's new street cars, reported to the police that her silver money bag was snatched from her hand Monday evening near Fulton and Washington streets. Miss Kasper was unable to describe the robber but believes he was a negro.

Get Rid of Lingering Colds, Coughs and La Grippe.

Spring flues many afflicted with lingering hacking coughs that weaken the system. Stomach and wet cause more colds than zero weather. Croup, bronchitis, and pneumonia are prevalent. Every family should have a safe and reliable cough medicine ready for use. Foley's Honey and Tar Compound contains no harmful ingredients. It soothes a cough, checks a cold and relieves inflamed and congested membranes. It clears the sinuses and soothes and soothes inflammation. Sold everywhere.—(Adv.)

MRS. MELTON'S LETTER To Tired, Worn-out Mothers

Jackson, Miss.—"I shall feel repaid for writing this letter if I can help any tired, worn-out mother or housekeeper to find health and strength as I have."

"I have a family of five, sew, cook and do my housework and I become very much run-down in health. A friend asked me to try Vio-Lin. I did so and now I am well and strong and my old tired energy has been restored. Vio-Lin has no effect on a mother's health, it is a tonic, runs down, tired mothers or housekeepers."

—Mrs. J. N. MELTON, Jackson, Miss. Elkin Drug Co., Atlanta, and leading druggists everywhere.—(Adv.)

Condensed Report of the Condition of The Third National Bank of Atlanta, Ga.,
at the Close of Business, March 4th, 1915, as Called for by the Comptroller of the Currency

RESOURCES

Loans and Discounts	$5,018,019.60
Overdrafts, secured and unsecured	99.08
U. S. Bonds at par	480,000.00
Premium on U. S. 4%
Bonds	39,250.00
Stocks and Bonds	241,649.00
Vaults and Fixtures	55,000.00
Redemption Fund	21,000.00
Cash On Hand and In Banks	1,810,271.43

$7,659,289.11

LIABILITIES

Capital	$1,000,000.00
Surplus	800,000.00
Net Profits	124,231.18
Circulation	420,000.00
Dividends Unpaid	272.00
Bills Payable	NONE
Re-discounts	221,500.00
Deposits	5,093,285.93

$7,659,289.11

OFFICERS:

FRANK HAWKINS, President
JOHN W. Grant, Vice-President
J. N. GODDARD, Vice-President
THOMAS C. ERWIN, Vice-President

A. M. BERGSTROM, Cashier
R. W. BYERS, Assistant Cashier
W. B. SYMMERS, Assistant Cashier
A. J. HANSELL, Assistant Cashier

DIRECTORS:

H. M. ATKINSON
DR. F. PHINIZY CALHOUN
MILTON DARGAN

THOS. C. ERWIN
J. N. GODDARD
JOHN W. GRANT

FRANK HAWKINS
H. Y. MCCOY
JAMES H. NUNNALLY
J. CARROLL PAYNE

The Atlanta National Bank
Atlanta, Ga.

Statement of Condition (condensed) March 4th, 1915

RESOURCES

Loans and Discounts	$5,462,401.70
United States Bonds	1,125,000.00
Other Bonds and Stocks	185,518.15
Banking House	800,000.00
Due from United States
Treasurer	$ 78,970.00
Cash on hand	611,231.43
Due from Federal Reserve B'k	181,387.83
Due from
Banks	$1,504,524.48
	2,376,113.74
	$9,949,033.59

LIABILITIES

Capital Stock	$1,000,000.00
Surplus and Undivided
Profits	1,366,463.89
Circulation	1,029,050.00
DEPOSITS—
Individual	$5,936,599.10
United States	101,635.71
Banks	715,284.89
	6,553,519.70

$9,949,033.59

You Are Invited to Call or Correspond With Us

If You Are Nervous and are losing weight, we recommend that you take Renall Olive Oil Emulsion for a short time. A prescription which we gladly endorse.
Elkin Drug Co.

Hosiery Specials
$1 Real Silk Hose
Wednesday for 58c Pair
Black and all sizes; the colors not in every size—but your size here. Red, rose, pink and more—it's a chance—come early.

Aluminum Coffee Percolator for $1.25
An unheard-of low price; always sell at $3 to $4. This one pictured, and makes 7 cups. Hurry, will all go quick!

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 10
BIG, SMOOTH
Irish Potatoes 1/2 pk. 11c
Sale California Dried Peaches and Prunes
In 10-lb. Boxes, SPECIAL
WEDNESDAY, per box - 87c

Wesson's Cooking Oil
---No. 2 Tin
23c
"Snowdrift" for Cakes
---No. 10 Tin
93c

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 10
BIG, SMOOTH
Irish Potatoes 1/2 pk. 11c
Sale California Dried Peaches and Prunes
In 10-lb. Boxes, SPECIAL
WEDNESDAY, per box - 87c

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 10
BIG, SMOOTH
Irish Potatoes 1/2 pk. 11c
Sale California Dried Peaches and Prunes
In 10-lb. Boxes, SPECIAL
WEDNESDAY, per box - 87c

The Greatest Sale of High Class Merchandise Ever Attempted In the Entire South, Begins

MEN'S LOW SHOES

Entire stock of Hess and Eise-man Special makes, in all styles and leathers at prices never before known in Atlanta.

All $3.50 Low Shoes $2.45
All $4.00 Low Shoes $2.95
All $5.00 Low Shoes $3.45
All $6.00 Low Shoes $4.15
All $6.50 Low Shoes $4.35
All $7.00 Low Shoes $4.65

EXTRA SPECIAL: Entire stock of celebrated Hess high shoes, in all styles and leathers, regular prices $6, $6.50 and $7—your choice.. $2.45

Thursday, March 11th, at 9 A. M.

Eiseman Brothers', Inc., Entire Stock, Including the New Spring and Summer Wearables, to be Sold Out Immediately in Order to Complete Our Future Plans.

MEN'S AND YOUNG MEN'S SUITS

The entire stock consists mostly of Hirsh-Wickwire, Fruhauf Bros. and Naumburg's world renowned clothes and all the Spring and Summer styles are included in this sale.

MEN'S SPRING HATS

Endless variety of new Spring blocks of Eiseman Bros., Inc., special hats, also the entire stock of John B. Stetson and Crofut & Knapp hats, all on sale:

All $2.00 Quality $1.45
All $3.00 Quality $1.95
All $4.00 Quality $2.65
All $4.50 Quality $2.95
All $5.00 Quality $3.45
(Including Stetsons)

EXTRA SPECIAL: Your choice of every broken line of $3 soft Hats in the house at 85c

MEN'S SHIRTS	NECKWEAR	UNDERWEAR
Manhattan, Yorke, Columbia, E. & W., Artistic and other high-grade makes, in all the new Spring patterns.	A beautiful variety of the best Easter styles all on sale.	New Spring and Summer weight Union Suits, Shirts and Drawers, athletic and full lengths.
$1.00 Quality .. 69c	50c Quality .. 29c	50c Quality .. 39c
$1.50 Quality .. 95c	75c Quality .. 39c	1.00 Quality .. 69c
$2.00 Quality .. $1.19	$1.00 Quality .. 65c	1.25 Quality .. 79c
$2.50 Quality .. $1.59	$1.50 Quality .. 95c	1.50 Quality .. 95c
$3.00 Quality .. $1.95	$2.00 Quality .. $1.15	$2.00 Quality .. $1.15
$3.50 Quality .. $2.19	$2.50 Quality .. $1.35	$2.50 Quality .. $1.69
$4.00 Quality .. $2.45	$3.00 Quality .. $1.65	$3.00 Quality .. $1.95
$5.00 Quality .. $3.45	$3.50 Quality .. $1.95	$3.50 Quality .. $2.39
$6.50 Quality .. $4.45
$7.50 Quality .. $5.45
$10 Quality .. $6.95

All $15.00 Suits . . . $ 9.45
All $18.00 Suits . . . $12.45
All $20.00 Suits . . . $14.45
All $25.00 Suits . . . $16.45
All $30.00 Suits . . . $19.45
All $35.00 Suits . . . $22.45
All $40.00 Suits . . . $24.45
All $45.00, $50 Suits $27.45

UNDERWEAR	PAJAMAS	HOSIERY
Medium and heavy-weight Union Suits and Shirts and Drawers.	And Nightshirts	25c Quality .. 14c
50c Quality .. 29c	50c Quality .. 39c	35c Quality .. 19c
75c Quality .. 39c	1.00 Quality .. 69c	50c Quality .. 29c
1.00 Quality .. 69c	1.50 Quality .. 89c	75c Quality .. 39c
1.25 Quality .. 79c	2.00 Quality .. $1.19	1.00 Quality .. 79c
1.50 Quality .. 89c	$2.50 Quality .. $1.45	1.50 Quality .. $1.15
2.00 Quality .. $1.15		EXTRA SPECIAL —
2.50 Quality .. $1.39		Entire stock of 25c Hos-
3.00 Quality .. $1.75		ieries, including Onyx, Ev-
3.50 Quality .. $1.89		er-Wear and Not-a-Seme,
4.00 Quality .. $1.95		choice—
	29c	14c

EXTRA SPECIAL: Genuine Scriven's patent elastic seam drawers—

.75 Quality - - .59
$1.00 Quality - - .69
$1.25 Quality - - .79

Arrow and Lion Brand Collars

Entire stock, consisting of over 1,000 dozen Arrow and Lion Brand Collars, all the new styles—

$1 per dozen, or 3 for 25c

EXTRA SPECIAL: 50c checked nairsook and plain muslin athletic Shirts and knee Drawers . . . 29c

The entire stock of light, medium and heavy weight Overcoats and Raincoats at lower prices than you have ever before known.

BOYS' SHOES

C. H. Alden, Cogan celebrated Shoes for boys, all styles and leathers:

$2.00 Low Shoes .. $1.35
$2.50 Low Shoes .. $1.65
$2.75 Low Shoes .. $2.15
$3.00 Low Shoes .. $2.15
$3.50 Low Shoes .. $2.45

GIRLS' SHOES

Dugan & Hudson's broad and flat heel Oxfords, slippers and pumps in white buck, patent calf, tan and gun metal. Choice of entire stock, $3.50 and $4.00 values—

$2.45

MISSSES', CHILDREN'S, LITTLE JUNIORS' AND PLAIN-MATE SHOES.

$1.00 Value .. 65c
$2.50 Value .. 85c
$1.50 Value .. $1.15
$1.75 Values .. $1.35
$2.00 Values .. $1.35
$2.75 Values .. $2.15
$3.00 Values .. $2.15
$2.50 Value .. $1.65

BOYS' BLOUSE WAISTS

Fancy blouses, collars attached and detached, madras, percales, and soisettes, all the new styles and patterns—

Best 50c Quality .. 35c
Best 75c Quality .. 47c
Best $1.00 Quality .. 69c
Best $1.50 Quality .. $1.15

BOYS' AND CHILDREN'S CLOTHING

The entire second floor of this mammoth building is devoted entirely to wearables for the little folks. Thousands of dollars' worth of bright, new Spring and Easter Styles must be sacrificed.

All $ 4.00 Suits .. $1.95
All $ 5.00 Suits .. $2.95
All $ 6.50 Suits .. $3.95
All $ 7.50 Suits .. $4.95
All $ 8.50 Suits .. $5.95
All $10.00 Suits .. $6.45
All $12.50 Suits .. $8.45
All $13.50 and $15.00 Suits .. $9.45

BOYS' UNDERWEAR

1 lot small sizes, 25c values .. 9c
25c Porous-Knit Shirts and Drawers .. 17c
50c Two-piece and Union Suits .. 29c
1.00 Union Suits, medium weight .. 49c

BOYS' & CHILDREN'S HATS

1 lot (small sizes) values to $1.50 .. 9c
1 lot, values up to $2.00 .. 14c
Boys' Telescope Hats up to $2.50 .. 39c

Boys' Knickers

Endless variety of new spring styles to select from.

$.50 Quality .. $.33
75c Quality .. 45c
1.00 Quality .. 69c
1.50 Quality .. 95c
2.00 Quality .. $1.45

Men's Trousers

Wonderful assortment of all the best makes—

All $3.00 Trousers .. $1.45
All $4.00 Trousers .. $1.95
All $5.00 Trousers .. $2.45
All $6.00 Trousers .. $3.45
All $7.50 Trousers .. $4.45

Gloves

Fisk-Clark & Flagg, Nor-thrup and D. & P.

$1.50 Grade .. 95c
$2.00 Grade .. $1.29
$2.50 Grade .. $1.59
$3.00 Grade .. $1.89

Men's Spring Caps

All 50c } Qualities .. 35c
All 75c }
All $1.00 Quality .. 49c
All $1.50 Quality .. 69c
All $2.00 Quality .. 95c

EXTRA SPECIAL: 500 dozen blue Amoskeag Chambray Work Shirts, best 50c value .. 29c

$1 Sweet-Orr Khaki Shirts, 69c

EXTRA SPECIAL: Boys' true-blue, pure wool sun-proof serges, Bulgarian Norfolk Suits, with two pairs lined Knicker Pants, best $7.50 values, all sizes 6 to 18 .. $4.95

BOYS' and GIRLS' O'COATS

Choice of entire stock in two prices

All $5.00, $7.50 and $10.00 Coats .. $3.95
All $12.50, $13.50 and $15.00 Coats .. $5.45

EXTRA SPECIAL: Dr. Kahn's and Janeway's Health Underwear, $1 Wool Shirts and Drawers .. 49c

Men's $1.50 to $2.50 House Shippers .. 69c

NOTICE

Any and all purchases may be exchanged or money cheerfully refunded if you want it.

EISEMAN BROTHERS

(Incorporated)

11-13-15-17 WHITEHALL STREET

NOTICE

Any and all purchases may be exchanged or money cheerfully refunded if you want it.

ATLANTA ATHLETIC CLUB STARTS REORGANIZATION

Asa G. Candler, Jr., Is Named President and New Directors Chosen

The Atlanta Athletic club at a meeting of members Monday night adopted a new form of government, elected officers to serve under the new form, and had a general love feast.

The new form provides that the members shall elect a president and two directors, that these three shall elect two other directors, and that these five shall have entire control of the club's affairs.

The members Monday night elected Asa G. Candler, Jr., president and Preston S. Arkwright and John W. Bachman directors. These will meet Tuesday and elect the other two directors.

Ten days ago when it appeared that the club was in serious financial difficulty it was proposed to separate into two clubs—one club to take the town house on Auburn avenue and the other club to take the golf course and new country house at East Lake. Asa G. Candler, Jr., came to the rescue with an offer to take the club over and reorganize it as a new form of government was adopted on the basis above set forth. The club then and there accepted his offer and the meeting Monday night carried out the reorganization.

It was probably the best meeting the club has ever had. The attendance was large and from that time to this there was not a single discordant note. Everybody was in enthusiastic high spirits, every speech brimmed with optimism for the club's future, every action taken was in perfect harmony with the prevailing sentiment and was unanimously approved.

WORK TO BE RUSHED.

Mr. Candler stated that the new house at East Lake will be rushed to completion, will be furnished from cellar to eave in keeping with the building, and the grounds will be laid off and beautified. He went at length into the club's financial affairs, showing that it has every prospect of operating at a profit independent within a reasonable time to liquidate all indebtedness.

That the club membership will very soon go back to the constitutional limit of 1,000 was clearly indicated by information furnished by various members who spoke. It was stated that applications for membership are coming in rapidly and that members who have resigned are returning in large numbers. One member said fifty resigned members had told him Monday they will come back.

There were many ovations. The election of Mr. Candler as president started one which shook the building. The election of Mr. Arkwright and Mr. Bachman as directors was the signal for another. Mr. Candler when he spoke was cheered again. Mr. Bachman made a speech and got a second round of applause. Several others spoke and each was received with enthusiastic demonstrations, among them being H. M. Atkinson, W. H. Glenn, J. H. Porter and Russell Compton.

Mr. Porter, the retiring president, was given a rising vote of thanks for his loyal devotion to the club, and the retiring directors were likewise complimented.

Card of Thanks

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Anchors and Mr. S. Moran wish to thank their many friends for the kindness and sympathy shown them during the recent illness and death of their beloved mother, Mrs. A. Moran—(Adv.)

ASA G. CANDLER, JR., who was elected president of the Atlanta Athletic club at the reorganization meeting Monday night.

EAST ATLANTA CLUB
MEETS TUESDAY NIGHT

Proposed Double Sessions in Public Schools Will Be Discussed

A meeting of the East Atlanta Improvement club will be held Tuesday night at 7:30 o'clock at the Martin Brown Memorial Methodist church, on Metropolitan avenue, for the purpose of discussing the proposed double sessions in Atlanta public schools.

Major R. J. Quinn, president of the city board of education, will explain the plan and it will be freely discussed pro and con. The plan is one that concerns every school patron in the city and has been discussed at a number of ward improvement clubs and civic bodies. Another matter to be taken up at the meeting Tuesday night is the report of a committee appointed to work out an improved system of street paving assessments with a view of asking city council to adopt the same.

$100 Reward, $100

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical profession. Catarrh requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure takes internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and enabling nature in doing its work. The proposition here is, much faith in the curative powers that this medicine holds for every case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address P. J. CHENEY & Co., Toledo, O. Sold by all Druggists, 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

The BY-WORD
$4

In four colors, Marine Blue, Ivy Green, Gun Metal Gray, trimmed to match; Black with Steel trimmings.

Brim is flat set with heavy rope edge—the edge that stands the wear; square, flat top crown, medium height, worn without the usual indent.

Four Dollars

Geo. Muse Clothing Co.

Blooming and Glowing and Sparkling—the New Spring Goods Are Ready

M. RICH & BROS. CO.

Fancy Linens Near Half Price

A Wonderful Disposal of New Bungalow Scarfs & Centerpieces & Fancy Linen Lace Scarfs

THESE fancy linens are the clean-up lot of an importer who supplies us regularly. Having duplicates of some of the pieces in stock, we know their value to a cent. When we say, therefore, that here are

75c pieces at 39c $2 pieces at 98c $4 pieces at $1.75

We are not guessing at the values—we speak with authority. Every piece in the lot is perfect; every piece is worth the full quoted higher value. The embroidered pieces are of natural and brown linen crash, beautifully embroidered in white, green, brown or blue, in scroll, spray and eyelet work. All have scalloped borders. See the window display. They go on sale, thus:

39c

Values
69c to 85c
—18, 20 and 24-inch centerpieces in great variety.

69c

Values
89c to $1.25
—24 and 30-inch centerpieces and 18x36 and 18x54-inch scarfs.

89c

Values
$1.25 to $1.75
—27x30-inch center-
pieces and 18x45 and 18x54-inch scarfs.

98c

Values
$1.50 to $2
—27x30-inch center-
pieces and 18x54-inch scarfs.

$1.25

Values
$1.75 to $2.50
—36-inch centerpieces and squares, also 18x
54-inch scarfs.

The Fancy Lace Linens Near Half Price

Consist of scarfs only, variously all linen, trimmed with real Cluny linen lace or a line with cotton Cluny lace trimmings. Sizes are 18x45 and 18x54 inches. Now priced:

$1.50 Scarfs 98c.

$2.00 Scarfs $1.25.

$2.50 Scarfs $1.50

$4 Scarfs $1.98.

(See the Window Display—Main Floor, Left.)

The Lace Sensation of the Year!

$1.75 to $3 Margot Laces 98c

WOMEN familiar with the beautiful Margot laces will need no second invitation to attend. If you don't know Margot laces, don't ask us to describe their sheer beauty. They're a fabric poem—woven of silk in cobweb tracery. On the crest wave of fashion this year for waists, sleeves, lace jackets and flounces. 9 to 24 inches wide in FLOUNCINGS; some with scalloped, others with straight edge. Every yard new—shown tomorrow for the first time. Values not to be touched under $1.75 to $3 a yard; choice 98c.

$1 Camisoles 59c

ORGANDIE camisoles in an exclusive design. Ribbon beading finished at bottom with coin dot, or forget-me-not embroidered in colors. (Main Floor, Right.)

$1.25 Embroideries 98c

IMAGINE a sheer white lingerie with colored beading for children's long-waisted dresses. The bottom is scalloped and embroidered in colors. 27 inches.

The Bon Ton Corset Demonstration continues all this week, because last week Miss Jackson was unable to fill all appointments. The factory, therefore, permits her to stay with us one more week—positively the last. Which reminds us that

Women who wish to look their BEST in New CLOTHES should be careful to get fitted FIRST in a New Corset

Mirror Candies
Pure clear through.

Hundreds of House Dresses for the Home

WOMEN who appreciate personal neatness about the home will be pleased with this splendid selection of house apparel. Here one can choose the well-fitting house dress, the convenient apron, the trim morning frock—selecting from a stock that is new and complete to the last detail.

In House Dresses alone at 98c

—there are more than ten different styles—all of tub-proof gingham, percales and chambrays. Solid colors, stripes, checks; some with plique collars and cuffs; some with touches of embroidery and velvet; some neatly embroidered. Light and medium colors. All with full skirts.

Better house dresses; scores of them at $1.50, $1.95, $2.50, $3.50.

Linen Porch Dresses $4.95

—Trim frocks for any time of day; wear them on the street if you wish. Full skirt; wide girder; large pearl buttons. Splendidly made of shrunk linen. White, light blue and pink.

Maid's Dress as Shown $3

Made of silky looking black satinet; choice of high or low neck.

White Aprons—with or without bibs; many styles; 25c, 50c, 95c.

Fitted Aprons 25c—percale or gingham, with bib. Ric-rac braid trimming.

Bungalow Aprons 50c—Belted-in or loose styles.

Black Saten Aprons—office style or for home. Long or short. 25c and 50c.

Dix Dresses for Nurses

Made with the utmost nicety of precision and neatness. Perfect materials; felled seams. Regulation styles; choice of high or low neck in some.

Blue chambray $1.50 and $2.25. Nurse stripe gingham $1.25 to $2. White linen $1.95.

White Dixie cloth, $2.25 and $3.

Maid's caps 10c to 25c. Nurses' caps 25c.

Waitresses' caps 25c. Cooks' caps 15c. Collar and cuff sets 25c.

Miss M. L. Bishop is booking orders for Easter costumes

The Annual March Sale of Women's Hand Bags 98c

LOOK at the shapes—they're the kind that have been selling at $1.50, $2, $3 and $4. Examine the materials—real leather in Morocco, crepe, pin seal grain or seal grain—or a heavy silk moire.

—Not that these are $2, $3 and $4 bags—we wouldn't give you that impression. But we do emphasize with all the power of our pen that these bags are copies of bags that sold at $2, $3 and $4, and that they are the best bags you'll find this season at 98c.

—All black; silk or moire lined. Various with 2, 3 and 4 fittings. All the new shapes—

Melon, Football, Pannier, Pear, Gathered, Covered, gilt or gun metal frames. Top strap handles.

—See them tomorrow in the window; choice 98c.

6-yard Pieces Wash Braids 19c

—White wash fabrics with scalloped borders in red, navy, Copenhagen, pink, black or all white. (Notions—Main Floor, Center.)

Bolt Entredeaux 25c Trimming Braids

—Soft, sheer nainsook, of fine quality, in the much-desired entredeaux. Narrow, medium, wide stitch. Six yards to piece, at 25c.

GARDEN TOOLS

at Great Savings

in the helpful Housewares section. Every article warranted. Come to the Lower Floor.

SHORT HANDLE SPADING FORKS

Just the thing for the flower garden, each $1.50 and $2.00

75c SPADING FORKS 49c

Four-tined Hardwood D'Handle Spading Forks 49c

75c GARDEN SPADES 49c

Cast steel blade, strapped on D-shaped handle 49c

GARDEN TROWELS

Regular Florist's Shapes at 50c, 10c, 25c, 50c

20c GARDEN HOES 19c

6 1/2-inch blades, with hardwood handle

GRASS HOOKS

25c

Made of highly tempered steel in a desirable shape 25c

Others at 30c and 40c

MALLEABLE IRON RAKES

With long hardwood handle

10-Tooth size 19c

12-Tooth size 21c

14-Tooth size 23c

16-Tooth size 29c

STEEL RAKES

12-Tooth size 39c

14-Tooth size 45c

16-Tooth size 49c

GARDEN WEEDERS

Polished handles with curved prongs 50c

POULTRY WIRE

100 linear feet to roll

The kind that is galvanized and made in a way that makes it more durable

Width Mesh Price

14-inch 2-inch 25c roll

14-inch 2 1/2-inch 25c roll

14-inch 3-inch 25c roll

14-inch 3 1/2-inch 25c roll

14-inch 4-inch 25c roll

14-inch 4 1/2-inch 25c roll

14-inch 5-inch 25c roll

14-inch 5 1/2-inch 25c roll

14-inch 6-inch 25c roll

14-inch 6 1/2-inch 25c roll

14-inch 7-inch 25c roll

14-inch 7 1/2-inch 25c roll

14-inch 8-inch 25c roll

14-inch 8 1/2-inch 25c roll

14-inch 9-inch 25c roll

14-inch 9 1/2-inch 25c roll

CHILDREN'S Garden Sets

Complete of hoe, rake and spade 25c and 40c

Pruning Shears 19c to 40c

RUBBER ROOFING PAPER

100 square feet to roll

For use as a waterproofing in places exposed to the weather, complete with nails, cement and instructions

1-ply guaranteed 5 years $1.25

2-ply guaranteed 8 years $1.75

3-ply guaranteed 10 years $2.25

2-ply Tar Paper, 108 sq. ft. to roll 98c

3-ply Tar Paper, 108 sq. ft. to roll $1.39

4-ply Tar Paper, 108 sq. ft. to roll $1.89

5-ply Tar Paper, 108 sq. ft. to roll $2.39

6-ply Tar Paper, 108 sq. ft. to roll $2.89

7-ply Tar Paper, 108 sq. ft. to roll $3.39

8-ply Tar Paper, 108 sq. ft. to roll $3.89

9-ply Tar Paper, 108 sq. ft. to roll $4.39

10-ply Tar Paper, 108 sq. ft. to roll $4.89

11-ply Tar Paper, 108 sq. ft. to roll $5.39

12-ply Tar Paper, 108 sq. ft. to roll $5.89

13-ply Tar Paper, 108 sq. ft. to roll $6.39

14-ply Tar Paper, 108 sq. ft. to roll $6.89

15-ply Tar Paper, 108 sq. ft. to roll $7.39

16-ply Tar Paper, 108 sq. ft. to roll $7.89

17-ply Tar Paper, 108 sq. ft. to roll $8.39

18-ply Tar Paper, 108 sq. ft. to roll $8.89

19-ply Tar Paper, 108 sq. ft. to roll $9.39

20-ply Tar Paper, 108 sq. ft. to roll $9.89

21-ply Tar Paper, 108 sq. ft. to roll $10.39

22-ply Tar Paper, 108 sq. ft. to roll $10.89

23-ply Tar Paper, 108 sq. ft. to roll $11.39

24-ply Tar Paper, 108 sq. ft. to roll $11.89

25-ply Tar Paper, 108 sq. ft. to roll $12.39

26-ply Tar Paper, 108 sq. ft. to roll $12.89

27-ply Tar Paper, 108 sq. ft. to roll $13.39

28-ply Tar Paper, 108 sq. ft. to roll $13.89

29-ply Tar Paper, 108 sq. ft. to roll $14.39

30-ply Tar Paper, 108 sq. ft. to roll $14.89

News of Women and Society

Vesper Club Dance

Mrs. Louise Hill, of Macon, and Miss Georgia Atkinson, of Newnan, will be the honor guests at the Vesper club dance Friday evening.

Invitations have been extended to many friends of the members. During the evening exhibitions will be given by couples who have been selected to dance for a loving cup to be given by the Imperial hotel Monday, April 5.

The cup will be presented to the club having the most graceful and fancy dance.

A second anniversary dance of the club will be held on Friday, March 15, and will be a formal affair.

The chapters Friday evening will be Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Adair, Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Throver, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Egan, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Leon, Mr. and Mrs. George R. Black, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Leon and Mr. and Mrs. Julian Chase.

Bridge Meeting Postponed

The meeting of the Tuesday Morning Bridge club which was to have been attended by Mrs. Robert Alston was postponed on account of the illness of Miss Nan Dublin, Mrs. Alston's sister.

To Mr. and Mrs. Haden

Last week Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Haden were the guests of honor at a barbecue given by Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Kyle at "Muckwaha" in the Oklawaha river, the winter home of Mrs. Kyle, where they have 5,000 acres of land, 200 beautiful Oklawaha river.

Fifty friends were present and in the afternoon Mr. Kyle gave his guests a ride in his motor boat for several miles down the Oklawaha river, north of Silver Springs.

Mr. Harper Entertains

Mr. Marion Harper entertained at a stag dinner Monday evening in celebration of his birthday.

The large round mahogany table was covered with a white cloth and the central decoration was a white and gold basket filled with bright red carnations and narcissus. The place of each guest was indicated by hand-colored playing cards, all of which were decorated with miniature libelles and bearing a circular buttonhole were souvenir of the occasion.

The living room and parlor, where cards were enjoyed, were tastefully arranged with crystal chandeliers and silver vases of pink roses. The guests included Mr. William J. Schroeder, Mr. Henry Kennedy, Mr. Michael C. King, Mr. Robert L. Boston, Mr. Brutus Clay, Mr. Julian Field, Mr. Julius Jennings, Mr. Lee Harvey, Mr. W. F. Hawkins, Mr. Robert of Boston, Mr. F. W. McKee, Mr. Frank Peck, Mr. Charles N. Lammie, Mr. C. Lyle, Mr. J. L. McClellan and Mr. John L. Little.

To Visitor

Miss Emily West entertained delightfully at dinner Monday evening, in compliment to Miss Mary Path of, of Avon, the guest of Mrs. Luther Ross, Jr.

Seated at the prettily appointed table were Miss Yow, Miss Helen Tucker, Miss West, Mr. W. A. N. Smith, Mr. Sidley Saul, Mr. Hubert, Mr. Aubrey McDuff, Mr. Forrest Robert, Mr. Burgess West and Mr. Edward Madock.

Arcadian Club Entertained

The members of the Arcadian club and a number of invited guests were entertained Saturday evening at the Morris bazaar, at his home in West End.

Among those present were Miss Catherine Jansel, Miss Nellie Thomas, Miss Florence Funnell, Miss Marie Tabler, Miss Nettie Bell, Miss Catherine Haugh, Miss Marie Matthews, Miss Ruth Stalder, Miss Elizabeth Wheeler, Mr. Herbert H. Gorman, Mr. Fred McDuff, Mr. Andrew Barrett, Mr. Leland Macquardt, Mr. Hatersland, Mr. Matthews, Mr. William Harrison, Mr. Mel Dekey, Mr. William Murphy, Mr. Shaler Groover and Mr. Rob Adams.

A meeting will be held Tuesday evening at the club rooms and all members are urged to be present.

Benefit Bridge

A benefit bridge party will be given Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Ansley hotel, the proceeds to be donated to a scholarship fund.

Silk hose will be the prize given at each table.

Admission will be 50 cents and the public is cordially invited.

Downstairs

M. RICH & BROS. CO.

Special

Patent Leather

Spat-Colonial

Gray or Fawn Cloth Tops

PUMPS

$2.95

Real $4 Values

Patent vamp and quarter, leather French heels and light welt sole

Wednesday only the special price of $2.95 prevails.

We also include at this special price, Patent and Mat Kid Button and Lace Oxfords, formerly selling for $3.25 to $4.00.

M. RICH & BROS. CO.

Downstairs

PARADE PARADE PARADE PARADE

Miss Donna Bain and Mr. Wiggins in Exhibition Dance at Piedmont Club

The Piedmont club will be the scene of gay social activity at the tea dance Wednesday afternoon, when Miss Donna Bain and her dancing partner, Mr. Gratton Wiggins, will appear in a series of novelty dances. Miss Bain arrived Sunday from Palm Beach, Fla., and with her mother, Mrs. Donnell Bain, is the guest for ten days of Mr. and Mrs. James L. Dickey, Jr., at the Ponce de Leon apartment.

Among the large number of parties arranged for Wednesday afternoon will be that at which Miss Dorothy Harrison entertained in honor of Miss Isabella Campbell, who is the guest of Miss Louisa Broyles, en route to join her mother, Mrs. Richard M. Campbell, in New York. Miss Harrison's guests will include Miss Campbell, Miss Mayne, Miss Virginia Lipscomb, Miss Maryle, Miss Henry Newman, Mr. John Hardisty, Mr. Stanley Mathewson, Mr. Benjamin Bailey, Mr. William Chisley, Jr., and Mr. Louis Grege.

Other interesting parties will be given by Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Glenn, Dr. Thomas P. Hinman, Mr. Winslow Chisley, Jr., Mr. Nash Broyles, Mr. K. R. Armstrong, Mr. and Mrs. Gus T. David, Mr. and Mrs. George Brine, Mrs. W. S. Witham, Mrs. Willie Kline, Mr. and Mrs. James L. Dickey, Jr., Mrs. William B. Huntley, Colonel Robert J. Lowry, Judge William T. Newman, Mrs. M. Q. McKenna, Mr. and Mrs. J. Frank Meador and Mr. and Mrs. William A. Spear.

The reading of "The Huguenots," Thursday afternoon at 8 o'clock, by Miss Anna Tucker at the Georgian Terrace hotel will be the first of a series of opera readings to be given by the ways and means committee of the Sacred Heart church.

Miss Rebie Upchurch and Mr. Wardwell will render vocal selections from the opera.

The reading of "The Huguenots," Thursday afternoon at 8 o'clock, by Miss Anna Tucker at the Georgian Terrace hotel will be the first of a series of opera readings to be given by the ways and means committee of the Sacred Heart church.

The last of the opera readings at the Woman's club will be given Wednesday afternoon at 8:30 o'clock.

Miss Lennie, of Berkeley, Cal., gave a brief account of her trip to Rome, Italy, where she took the teachers' training course in the Montessori method, and received her diploma June 19, 1914.

"The Necessity of Domestic Science Training in the Schools" was the subject of a address talk by Miss Zillah Johnson, which was followed by Miss Wehlan, of England, who told the practical training and application of domestic knowledge given the pupils in the public schools of England.

The keen interest of the students of the Atlanta Young People's Suffrage association was told of by Mrs. E. M. Horne, and Miss Jessie Meade, who were the adopters of domestic science in the schools.

"Progress in the Home" was presented to the members present by Dr. Elizabeth Broach, and Mrs. James Jackson made an interesting short talk.

A social hour followed the regular program.

The members of Yaraab Ball and visiting skaters are manifesting much interest in the ball to be given by the Yaraab ball team Friday evening at the Druid Hills golf club.

The affair will be formal and dancing will begin at 8 o'clock.

The members of Yaraab Ball and visiting skaters are manifesting much interest in the ball to be given by the Yaraab ball team Friday evening at the Druid Hills golf club.

The affair will be formal and dancing will begin at 8 o'clock.

The members of Yaraab Ball and visiting skaters are manifesting much interest in the ball to be given by the Yaraab ball team Friday evening at the Druid Hills golf club.

The affair will be formal and dancing will begin at 8 o'clock.

The members of Yaraab Ball and visiting skaters are manifesting much interest in the ball to be given by the Yaraab ball team Friday evening at the Druid Hills golf club.

The affair will be formal and dancing will begin at 8 o'clock.

The members of Yaraab Ball and visiting skaters are manifesting much interest in the ball to be given by the Yaraab ball team Friday evening at the Druid Hills golf club.

The affair will be formal and dancing will begin at 8 o'clock.

The members of Yaraab Ball and visiting skaters are manifesting much interest in the ball to be given by the Yaraab ball team Friday evening at the Druid Hills golf club.

The affair will be formal and dancing will begin at 8 o'clock.

The members of Yaraab Ball and visiting skaters are manifesting much interest in the ball to be given by the Yaraab ball team Friday evening at the Druid Hills golf club.

The affair will be formal and dancing will begin at 8 o'clock.

The members of Yaraab Ball and visiting skaters are manifesting much interest in the ball to be given by the Yaraab ball team Friday evening at the Druid Hills golf club.

The affair will be formal and dancing will begin at 8 o'clock.

The members of Yaraab Ball and visiting skaters are manifesting much interest in the ball to be given by the Yaraab ball team Friday evening at the Druid Hills golf club.

The affair will be formal and dancing will begin at 8 o'clock.

The members of Yaraab Ball and visiting skaters are manifesting much interest in the ball to be given by the Yaraab ball team Friday evening at the Druid Hills golf club.

The affair will be formal and dancing will begin at 8 o'clock.

The members of Yaraab Ball and visiting skaters are manifesting much interest in the ball to be given by the Yaraab ball team Friday evening at the Druid Hills golf club.

The affair will be formal and dancing will begin at 8 o'clock.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

PARENT-TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION

There will be a full meeting of the Parent-Teachers' Association of the Boulevard school Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Major Jones will address the meeting and a full and complete report of the year's work of the association will be given. Light refreshments will be served and members are requested to bring a cup, saucer and spoon.

W. C. T. U. MEETING

The Richmond Woman's Christian Temperance union will meet in the parlors of the Hotel Ansley Friday morning at 10 o'clock. Dr. Gales, of the Flying Squadron, of the United States, will be invited to address the meeting. Everybody is invited.

ATLANTA YOUNG PEOPLE'S SUFFRAGE

A meeting of the Atlanta Young People's Suffrage association will be held Wednesday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, in the parlors of the hotel. A cordial invitation is extended to all young people to attend.

STUDY CLUB OF DRAMA LEAGUE

The Drama League, No. 1, Atlanta Young People's Suffrage association, will meet Thursday evening at 8 o'clock, in Carnegie library. The drama for the evening is "The Madman," by J. M. Edgworth. The second in the series of drama frames.

Will Lecture Before Writers' Club

An event of interest will be the lecture under the auspices of the Atlanta Writers' club at 8 o'clock Monday night, March 23, by Dr. J. B. Egan, of Springfield, Mass. Dr. Egan was for nine years editor of the Springfield Republican, and is now a member of the faculty of the Home Correspondence school, Springfield, Mass. The lecture will be free to the public and will be given in the convention hall on the top floor of the Hotel Ansley.

Dr. Egan's lecture on the short story covers the full range of the subject. He explains the structural nature of the various short fiction forms, both by example and by clearly-stated reasons, shows how and why each type differs from the others. The nature and handling of plot are also plainly set forth, and many practical suggestions given which have grown from Dr. Egan's long experience as an editor.

Among the other matters of the short story, such as dialogue, character delineation, etc., are discussed in such a way as to be interesting to those who love fiction as well as helpful to those who write. The lecture is a most interesting and useful one. Dr. Egan's lecture is a most interesting and useful one. Dr. Egan's lecture is a most interesting and useful one.

The meeting of the Atlanta Writers' club held at the University club Monday afternoon was well attended and an interesting program was carried out. Informal discussions were included in the program. Literary work done by the various members, their successes and failures, and this organization seems to be proving of real worth to its members.

Miss Mattie Sloan, who has devoted much time and study to literary matters, especially pertaining to school work, gave a most interesting talk on "The Short Story," and the difference in instruction between that country and America. Her paper was based on personal observations and was much enjoyed.

The reading by Miss Kate Massey of a well prepared paper written by Mr. W. S. Kirkpatrick, of the Atlanta Georgian, on the preparation of copy for the printer and the mistakes which are frequent, was a source of important knowledge to those present, and Mr. Kirkpatrick, who could not be present, was given a vote of thanks.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. White entertained Thursday evening at a cotton shower in honor of the first wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Ferguson.

Mrs. Wilson won the prize in the flower contest.

The invited guests were Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Fred White, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Wood, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Ferguson, Mr. Simms, Mrs. McNeill, Mrs. Cooper, Miss Kate White, Miss McNeill, Miss Corrine White, Mr. Allison and Mr. Hugh Sheats.

The invited guests were Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Fred White, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Wood, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Ferguson, Mr. Simms, Mrs. McNeill, Mrs. Cooper, Miss Kate White, Miss McNeill, Miss Corrine White, Mr. Allison and Mr. Hugh Sheats.

The invited guests were Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Fred White, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Wood, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Ferguson, Mr. Simms, Mrs. McNeill, Mrs. Cooper, Miss Kate White, Miss McNeill, Miss Corrine White, Mr. Allison and Mr. Hugh Sheats.

The invited guests were Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Fred White, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Wood, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Ferguson, Mr. Simms, Mrs. McNeill, Mrs. Cooper, Miss Kate White, Miss McNeill, Miss Corrine White, Mr. Allison and Mr. Hugh Sheats.

The invited guests were Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Fred White, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Wood, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Ferguson, Mr. Simms, Mrs. McNeill, Mrs. Cooper, Miss Kate White, Miss McNeill, Miss Corrine White, Mr. Allison and Mr. Hugh Sheats.

The invited guests were Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Fred White, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Wood, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Ferguson, Mr. Simms, Mrs. McNeill, Mrs. Cooper, Miss Kate White, Miss McNeill, Miss Corrine White, Mr. Allison and Mr. Hugh Sheats.

The invited guests were Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Fred White, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Wood, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Ferguson, Mr. Simms, Mrs. McNeill, Mrs. Cooper, Miss Kate White, Miss McNeill, Miss Corrine White, Mr. Allison and Mr. Hugh Sheats.

The invited guests were Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Fred White, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Wood, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Ferguson, Mr. Simms, Mrs. McNeill, Mrs. Cooper, Miss Kate White, Miss McNeill, Miss Corrine White, Mr. Allison and Mr. Hugh Sheats.

The invited guests were Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Fred White, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Wood, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Ferguson, Mr. Simms, Mrs. McNeill, Mrs. Cooper, Miss Kate White, Miss McNeill, Miss Corrine White, Mr. Allison and Mr. Hugh Sheats.

The invited guests were Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Fred White, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Wood, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Ferguson, Mr. Simms, Mrs. McNeill, Mrs. Cooper, Miss Kate White, Miss McNeill, Miss Corrine White, Mr. Allison and Mr. Hugh Sheats.

The invited guests were Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Fred White, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Wood, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Ferguson, Mr. Simms, Mrs. McNeill, Mrs. Cooper, Miss Kate White, Miss McNeill, Miss Corrine White, Mr. Allison and Mr. Hugh Sheats.

CIRCLE MEETING

The Ladies Circle of the King's Daughters and Sons will meet at the home of Mrs. Jessie W. Hudson, 27 Cherokee avenue, Wednesday at 8 o'clock.

WOMAN'S SUFFRAGE ASSOCIATION

The Atlanta Young People's Suffrage association will meet in the parlors of the Hotel Ansley Friday morning at 10 o'clock. Dr. Gales, of the Flying Squadron, of the United States, will be invited to address the meeting. Everybody is invited.

19TH CENTURY HISTORY CLASS MEETING

The 19th Century history class will meet Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock, with Mrs. Vassar Venable.

CALLING MEETING OF GUILD

A calling meeting of the Guild of the First Methodist church will be held Wednesday morning, at 11 o'clock, at the church, to consider the final plans for concerts. This meeting will take the place of the one announced for Friday morning.

MODERN TOPIC CLUB

The West End Study club will meet Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock, with Mrs. W. H. Mansfield will read a paper.

WEST END STUDY CLUB

The West End Study club will meet Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock, with Mrs. W. H. Mansfield will read a paper.

Special Service at

Craigie House

Mrs. Joseph M. High, regent of the Atlanta chapter Daughters of the American Revolution, has tendered the use of Craigie house for a service Friday morning at 11 o'clock which will be conducted by Dr. Chapman, assisted by Mr. Allen.

Theater Party

Mrs. Amelia Woodall will entertain thirty guests Wednesday afternoon to witness the moving picture "Your Girl and Mine" at the Grand theater.

Birthday Dinner Party

A delightful occasion of Monday was the dinner party at which Mrs. Chester Wells Johnson entertained at her home on North Moreland, in celebration of the seventy-eighth birthday anniversary of her mother, Mrs. John Johnson.

A mound of bright yellow tulips and a vase of flowers of the same color and all minor details suggested the color motif of yellow and white.

Covers were laid for Mrs. Brooks, Mrs. Jones, Mrs. Florence Brown Hever, Mrs. Fletcher Bennett, Mrs. Lillian M. R. Johnson and Frederick Johnson of Chicago, Mrs. R. A. Ellis, Mrs. Frances W. Williams, Mrs. Lillian M. R. Johnson, Mrs. Reese Couch and Miss Lillian Couch, of Waco, Tex.

The prompt and positive results given by this pleasant tasting, home-made cough syrup has caused it to be used in more homes than any other remedy. It gives almost instant relief and will usually overcome the average cough in 24 hours.

Get 25 ounces Pinex (50 cents worth) from any drug store, mix it into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar. This makes a full pint—a family supply—for the most active cough remedy at a cost of only 50 cents or less. You couldn't buy as much ready-made cough medicine for $2.50. Easily prepared and never sold with directions with Pinex.

The promptness, certainty and ease with which this Pinex Syrup overcomes the most stubborn cough is truly remarkable. It quickly loosens a dry, irritated, or the cough and heaves and soothes a painful cough in a hurry. With a persistent loose cough it stops the formation of phlegm in the throat and bronchial tubes, thus ending the annoying hacking.

Pinex is a highly concentrated cough and cold remedy. It is a true Pinex in quality and is famous the world over for its splendid effect in bronchitis, whooping cough, bronchial asthma and winter coughs.

To avoid disappointment in making this ask your druggist for 25 ounces of Pinex. It is a true Pinex in quality and is famous the world over for its splendid effect in bronchitis, whooping cough, bronchial asthma and winter coughs.

To avoid disappointment in making this ask your druggist for 25 ounces of Pinex. It is a true Pinex in quality and is famous the world over for its splendid effect in bronchitis, whooping cough, bronchial asthma and winter coughs.

To avoid disappointment in making this ask your druggist for 25 ounces of Pinex. It is a true Pinex in quality and is famous the world over for its splendid effect in bronchitis, whooping cough, bronchial asthma and winter coughs.

To avoid disappointment in making this ask your druggist for 25 ounces of Pinex. It is a true Pinex in quality and is famous the world over for its splendid effect in bronchitis, whooping cough, bronchial asthma and winter coughs.

To avoid disappointment in making this ask your druggist for 25 ounces of Pinex. It is a true Pinex in quality and is famous the world over for its splendid effect in bronchitis, whooping cough, bronchial asthma and winter coughs.

To avoid disappointment in making this ask your druggist for 25 ounces of Pinex. It is a true Pinex in quality and is famous the world over for its splendid effect in bronchitis, whooping cough, bronchial asthma and winter coughs.

To avoid disappointment in making this ask your druggist for 25 ounces of Pinex. It is a true Pinex in quality and is famous the world over for its splendid effect in bronchitis, whooping cough, bronchial asthma and winter coughs.

What wheat?

There is only one wheat good enough for Valier's Dainty Flour—the best.

And to make sure of the best we send our buyers right out to the wheat fields to personally pick the choicest wheat raised.

Valier's Dainty Flour

sometimes costs a trifle more by the sack, but being so fine, it makes more in baking. And then it makes a white lighter, more delicious biscuit—and cake and pastry too. Get a sack of this superior flour today.

T. H. Brooke & Co., Distributors, Atlanta

Come Here Wednesday and Get the Best Trimmed Hat Bargain of the Season

$1.90

values $3.50 $5.00 $7.50

125 New Trimmed Hats

$1.90

former values $3.50 $5.00 $7.50

Ends Dry, Hoarse or Painful Coughs Quickly

A Simple, Home-Made Remedy, Inexpensive but Unequalled

The prompt and positive results given by this pleasant tasting, home-made cough syrup has caused it to be used in more homes than any other remedy. It gives almost instant relief and will usually overcome the average cough in 24 hours.

Get 25 ounces Pinex (50 cents worth) from any drug store, mix it into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar. This makes a full pint—a family supply—for the most active cough remedy at a cost of only 50 cents or less. You couldn't buy as much ready-made cough medicine for $2.50. Easily prepared and never sold with directions with Pinex.

The promptness, certainty and ease with which this Pinex Syrup overcomes the most stubborn cough is truly remarkable. It quickly loosens a dry, irritated, or the cough and heaves and soothes a painful cough in a hurry. With a persistent loose cough it stops the formation of phlegm in the throat and bronchial tubes, thus ending the annoying hacking.

Pinex is a highly concentrated cough and cold remedy. It is a true Pinex in quality and is famous the world over for its splendid effect in bronchitis, whooping cough, bronchial asthma and winter coughs.

To avoid disappointment in making this ask your druggist for 25 ounces of Pinex. It is a true Pinex in quality and is famous the world over for its splendid effect in bronchitis, whooping cough, bronchial asthma and winter coughs.

To avoid disappointment in making this ask your druggist for 25 ounces of Pinex. It is a true Pinex in quality and is famous the world over for its splendid effect in bronchitis, whooping cough, bronchial asthma and winter coughs.

To avoid disappointment in making this ask your druggist for 25 ounces of Pinex. It is a true Pinex in quality and is famous the world over for its splendid effect in bronchitis, whooping cough, bronchial asthma and winter coughs.

To avoid disappointment in making this ask your druggist for 25 ounces of Pinex. It is a true Pinex in quality and is famous the world over for its splendid effect in bronchitis, whooping cough, bronchial asthma and winter coughs.

To avoid disappointment in making this ask your druggist for 25 ounces of Pinex. It is a true Pinex in quality and is famous the world over for its splendid effect in bronchitis, whooping cough, bronchial asthma and winter coughs.

To avoid disappointment in making this ask your druggist for 25 ounces of Pinex. It is a true Pinex in quality and is famous the world over for its splendid effect in bronchitis, whooping cough, bronchial asthma and winter coughs.

To avoid disappointment in making this ask your druggist for 25 ounces of Pinex. It is a true Pinex in quality and is famous the world over for its splendid effect in bronchitis, whooping cough, bronchial asthma and winter coughs.

To avoid disappointment in making this ask your druggist for 25 ounces of Pinex. It is a true Pinex in quality and is famous the world over for its splendid effect in bronchitis, whooping cough, bronchial asthma and winter coughs.

To avoid disappointment in making this ask your druggist for 25 ounces of Pinex. It is a true Pinex in quality and is famous the world over for its splendid effect in bronchitis, whooping cough, bronchial asthma and winter coughs.

To avoid disappointment in making this ask your druggist for 25 ounces of Pinex. It is a true Pinex in quality and is famous the world over for its splendid effect in bronchitis, whooping cough, bronchial asthma and winter coughs.

Personal Mention

—Mrs. E. C. Hodges, of Asheville, N. C., is the guest of her sister, Mrs. C. K. Ashby, at her home on Ponce de Leon avenue. Mrs. Ashby is improving from a recent illness.

—Miss Anna Logan and little nephew, Logan Pratt, who have been visiting relatives in New Orleans, La., for the past ten months, are expected home Saturday.

—Mrs. J. N. Trigg, of Chattanooga, arrived Sunday from Miami, Fla., where she spent the winter, and is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Andrew Calhoun.

—Mrs. J. St. Akers and Miss Anne Akers are convalescing after recent illnesses at their home on Piedmont avenue.

—Miss Annie Maude Schaeffer has returned from St. Petersburg, Fla., and Macon, where she spent several weeks.

—Mrs. Charles Murphy Sciple entertained the members of her bridge club Tuesday at her home on Peachtree street.

—Mr. Samuel G. Gineburg, who has been in New York and Boston for the past three weeks, has returned to Atlanta.

—Miss Dorothy Ashbury, who has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. S. H. Ball, in Troy, Ala., has returned home.

—Mr. and Mrs. V. C. Vaughan announce the birth of a son who has been named Vernon Coby Vaughan, Jr.

—Miss Nan duignon, who underwent an operation at St. Joseph's infirmary Monday, is some better.

—The usual weekly dinner dance at the Capital City club will be a bright event of this evening.

—Mrs. W. W. Austell will leave Wednesday for New York City for a stay of six weeks.

—Mrs. S. A. Smith, of Opelika, Ala., is the guest of her sister, Mrs. G. S. Prior.

—Mr. J. E. S. Cooper, of Decatur, is ill at the Grady hospital.

—Mrs. F. M. Sutton is ill at her home in Cherokee avenue.

—Miss Gladys Dunson is ill at her home in Atlanta Park.

Shorter Notes

ROCK—On George Washington's birthday the whole college community appeared at dinner in college costume, half of the students wearing hats, the others, gowns. There was much merriment and the evening and a delightful one it proved. At 8 o'clock "Maiden Matrons," a colonial play, was presented in the college parlors.

One of the most enjoyable occasions of this year was the presentation of "The Days of the Week," by the Southern Dramatic club, in honor of the seniors and faculty. The play was dramatized by Miss C. L. Smith, instructor of expression. The play was presented in the college parlors at one of which a stage had been improvised by the students, who also did the scenery. The audience was delighted. The play was enthusiastically received.

The recall of Miss Sarah Gore, vice, and Mr. Agnes Davidson, piano, and organ, was given Monday evening. Three highly talented artists, under the direction of Miss Davidson, presented an exceptionally pleasing program of high-class music. They were Wilmet Goodwin, late baritone of the Aborn Opera company; Lee Cronin, pianist, and Maurice Warner, violinist.

Another large attendance is expected at the concert Tuesday evening.

Lumber Mills Burn (Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

COLQUITT, Ga., March 9.—The big lumber mill of Phillips Lumber company, of Colquitt, Ga., a little place four miles north of here, burned yesterday about 3 o'clock. The origin of the fire is unknown, but is thought to have started from one of the furnaces of the planing mill.

The loss is close to $50,000 and is partly covered by insurance.

Mrs. Lea Improving (Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

ASHEVILLE, N. C., March 9.—The condition of Mrs. Luke Lea, wife of United States Senator Luke Lea, of Tennessee, who is ill here with pneumonia, today was said by her physicians to be greatly improving. Senator Lea, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Warner, Mrs. Lea's father and mother, arrived here last night.

Mrs. J. B. Dye gave a charming party Friday afternoon at her home on St. James at her lovely home on Solado street.

Governor Signs Warrants

Warrants for a second installment of $100 each to the eleven district agricultural schools of Georgia were signed Tuesday by Governor Raton. Each of these schools gets an annual appropriation of $10,000 from the state, and the money comes from the sale of fertilizers. The first 1915 installment of $200 to each of the schools was paid about three weeks ago.

Mr. Hoke Williamson Dies (Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

COMMERCIA, Ga., March 9.—On yesterday afternoon from the First Baptist church occurred the funeral of Mr. Hoke Williamson, of this place. Mr. Williamson, was a young man, only twenty-five years of age, and besides his mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Williamson, leaves three brothers and three sisters, Messrs. Carl, Harry and Roy Williamson, and Misses Nora, Clara and Norris Williamson.

Mrs. W. B. Barnett Dies (Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

COMMERCIA, Ga., March 9.—Mrs. W. B. Barnett, one of Commerce's best loved matrons, died at her home on North Broad street on Monday morning. Mrs. Barnett leaves her husband, Mr. W. B. Barnett, and two sons, Messrs. Keif Barnett and John Barnett, and one sister, Mrs. L. Alexander.

Self-Reliant Home Doctors

In what women are called who all over the broad land make their annual collections of roots and herbs, and rely upon recipes which our pioneer mothers found dependable for different family ailments. In one of these recipes, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had the origin and so successful has it proved that there is hardly a city, town or hamlet in America where some woman who has been restored to health by its use does not reside.—(Adv.)

H. R. MERKER

New Le of the

250 Lake Ave.

Only exclusive Ostich leather dyer, cleaner and cutter in Atlanta.

Parade and fancy plumage refinished and re-branched.

Please try this and I will call at your home and give estimates.

YOUNG MOTHER AND SONS

—Home Photo by Misses Mead.

Mrs. FRANK STEINHILBER and her young sons.

Mrs. Steinhilber was formerly Miss Sadie Lygett of this city and her two handsome sons are named William and John.

INTERESTING PROGRAM PLANNED FOR CONCERT

Many Atlantians Interested in Home for Old Women Benefit

The second cycle of the concert for the benefit of the Home for Old Women will be given Tuesday evening in the auditorium of Wesley Memorial church.

Several hundred Atlantians were delighted with the first concert which was given Monday evening. Three highly talented artists, under the direction of Miss Davidson, presented an exceptionally pleasing program of high-class music.

They were Wilmet Goodwin, late baritone of the Aborn Opera company; Lee Cronin, pianist, and Maurice Warner, violinist.

Another large attendance is expected at the concert Tuesday evening.

Lumber Mills Burn (Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

COLQUITT, Ga., March 9.—The big lumber mill of Phillips Lumber company, of Colquitt, Ga., a little place four miles north of here, burned yesterday about 3 o'clock. The origin of the fire is unknown, but is thought to have started from one of the furnaces of the planing mill.

The loss is close to $50,000 and is partly covered by insurance.

Mrs. Lea Improving (Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

ASHEVILLE, N. C., March 9.—The condition of Mrs. Luke Lea, wife of United States Senator Luke Lea, of Tennessee, who is ill here with pneumonia, today was said by her physicians to be greatly improving. Senator Lea, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Warner, Mrs. Lea's father and mother, arrived here last night.

Mrs. J. B. Dye gave a charming party Friday afternoon at her home on St. James at her lovely home on Solado street.

Governor Signs Warrants

Warrants for a second installment of $100 each to the eleven district agricultural schools of Georgia were signed Tuesday by Governor Raton. Each of these schools gets an annual appropriation of $10,000 from the state, and the money comes from the sale of fertilizers. The first 1915 installment of $200 to each of the schools was paid about three weeks ago.

Mr. Hoke Williamson Dies (Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

COMMERCIA, Ga., March 9.—On yesterday afternoon from the First Baptist church occurred the funeral of Mr. Hoke Williamson, of this place. Mr. Williamson, was a young man, only twenty-five years of age, and besides his mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Williamson, leaves three brothers and three sisters, Messrs. Carl, Harry and Roy Williamson, and Misses Nora, Clara and Norris Williamson.

Mrs. W. B. Barnett Dies (Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

COMMERCIA, Ga., March 9.—Mrs. W. B. Barnett, one of Commerce's best loved matrons, died at her home on North Broad street on Monday morning. Mrs. Barnett leaves her husband, Mr. W. B. Barnett, and two sons, Messrs. Keif Barnett and John Barnett, and one sister, Mrs. L. Alexander.

Self-Reliant Home Doctors

In what women are called who all over the broad land make their annual collections of roots and herbs, and rely upon recipes which our pioneer mothers found dependable for different family ailments. In one of these recipes, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had the origin and so successful has it proved that there is hardly a city, town or hamlet in America where some woman who has been restored to health by its use does not reside.—(Adv.)

H. R. MERKER

New Le of the

250 Lake Ave.

Only exclusive Ostich leather dyer, cleaner and cutter in Atlanta.

Parade and fancy plumage refinished and re-branched.

Please try this and I will call at your home and give estimates.

LITTLE STORIES FOR BEDTIME

BY THORNTON W. BURGESS.

(Copyright, 1915, by J. G. Loyd.)

As true as ever I've cawed a caw.

That was a new-laid egg I saw."

"What are you talking about?" demanded Sammy Jay, coming up just in time to hear the last of what Blacky the Crow was mumbling to himself.

"Oh, nothing, nothing, nothing at all," replied Blacky. "I was just talking foolishness to myself."

Sammy looked at him sharply. "You aren't feeling sick, are you, Cousin Blacky?" he asked.

"Must be something the matter with you when you begin talking about new-laid eggs when everything's covered with snow and ice. Foolishness is no name for it. Whoever heard of such a thing as a new-laid egg this time of year?"

"Nobody, I guess," replied Blacky. "I told you I was just talking foolishness. You see I'm so hungry that I just got to thinking what I'd have if I could have anything I wanted. That made me think of eggs, and I tried to think just how I would feel if I should suddenly see a great big egg in front of me. I guess I must have said something about it."

"I guess you must have, but you'll do well to forget all about foolishness. It isn't egg time yet, and it won't be for a long time. Take my advice and just forget about impossible things. I'm going over to Farmer Brown's corncrib. Corn may not be as good as eggs, but it is very good and filling. Better come along," cooed Sammy.

"Not this morning, thank you. Some other time, perhaps," replied Blacky.

He watched Sammy disappear through the trees. Then he flew to the top of the tallest pine tree to make sure no one was about. When he was quite sure that no one was watching him he spread his wings and headed for the most lonely corner of the Green Forest.

"I'm foolish, I know I'm foolish," he muttered. "But I've just got to have another look in that nest of Redtail the Hawk. I just can't get it out of my head that that was an egg, a great big white egg, that I saw yesterday. I won't do any harm to have another look anyway."

He went on toward the tree in which was the great tumble-down nest of Redtail the Hawk he saw, and as he drew near he flew high, for Blacky is too shrewd and smart to take any chances. Not that he thought that there could be any danger there, but you can never tell and it is always the part of wisdom to be on the safe side. As he passed over the top of the tree he looked down eagerly. Just imagine how he felt when instead of one he saw two white things in the old nest, two white things that looked looked for all the world like eggs. The day before there had been but one and now there were two. That settled it in Blacky's mind. They were eggs. They couldn't be anything else.

Blacky kept right on flying. Somehow he didn't dare stop just then. "It was too much excited by what he had discovered to think clearly. He had got to have time to get his wife together. Who ever had had those eggs was big and strong. He felt sure a great deal bigger than himself and he was of no mind to get into trouble even for a dinner of fresh eggs. He must first find out whose they were, and then he would know better what to do. He felt sure that no one else knew about them, and he knew that they couldn't run away. So he kept right on flying until he reached a certain tall pine tree, where he could sit and think without being disturbed."

"Eggs," he muttered. "Real eggs. Now when under the sun can have moved into Redtail's old house, and what can they mean by laying eggs before Mistress Spring has even sent word that she has started? It's too much for me. It certainly is too much for me."

He flew on toward the tree in which was the great tumble-down nest of Redtail the Hawk he saw, and as he drew near he flew high, for Blacky is too shrewd and smart to take any chances. Not that he thought that there could be any danger there, but you can never tell and it is always the part of wisdom to be on the safe side. As he passed over the top of the tree he looked down eagerly. Just imagine how he felt when instead of one he saw two white things in the old nest, two white things that looked looked for all the world like eggs. The day before there had been but one and now there were two. That settled it in Blacky's mind. They were eggs. They couldn't be anything else.

Blacky kept right on flying. Somehow he didn't dare stop just then. "It was too much excited by what he had discovered to think clearly. He had got to have time to get his wife together. Who ever had had those eggs was big and strong. He felt sure a great deal bigger than himself and he was of no mind to get into trouble even for a dinner of fresh eggs. He must first find out whose they were, and then he would know better what to do. He felt sure that no one else knew about them, and he knew that they couldn't run away. So he kept right on flying until he reached a certain tall pine tree, where he could sit and think without being disturbed."

"Eggs," he muttered. "Real eggs. Now when under the sun can have moved into Redtail's old house, and what can they mean by laying eggs before Mistress Spring has even sent word that she has started? It's too much for me. It certainly is too much for me."

He flew on toward the tree in which was the great tumble-down nest of Redtail the Hawk he saw, and as he drew near he flew high, for Blacky is too shrewd and smart to take any chances. Not that he thought that there could be any danger there, but you can never tell and it is always the part of wisdom to be on the safe side. As he passed over the top of the tree he looked down eagerly. Just imagine how he felt when instead of one he saw two white things in the old nest, two white things that looked looked for all the world like eggs. The day before there had been but one and now there were two. That settled it in Blacky's mind. They were eggs. They couldn't be anything else.

Blacky kept right on flying. Somehow he didn't dare stop just then. "It was too much excited by what he had discovered to think clearly. He had got to have time to get his wife together. Who ever had had those eggs was big and strong. He felt sure a great deal bigger than himself and he was of no mind to get into trouble even for a dinner of fresh eggs. He must first find out whose they were, and then he would know better what to do. He felt sure that no one else knew about them, and he knew that they couldn't run away. So he kept right on flying until he reached a certain tall pine tree, where he could sit and think without being disturbed."

"Eggs," he muttered. "Real eggs. Now when under the sun can have moved into Redtail's old house, and what can they mean by laying eggs before Mistress Spring has even sent word that she has started? It's too much for me. It certainly is too much for me."

He flew on toward the tree in which was the great tumble-down nest of Redtail the Hawk he saw, and as he drew near he flew high, for Blacky is too shrewd and smart to take any chances. Not that he thought that there could be any danger there, but you can never tell and it is always the part of wisdom to be on the safe side. As he passed over the top of the tree he looked down eagerly. Just imagine how he felt when instead of one he saw two white things in the old nest, two white things that looked looked for all the world like eggs. The day before there had been but one and now there were two. That settled it in Blacky's mind. They were eggs. They couldn't be anything else.

Blacky kept right on flying. Somehow he didn't dare stop just then. "It was too much excited by what he had discovered to think clearly. He had got to have time to get his wife together. Who ever had had those eggs was big and strong. He felt sure a great deal bigger than himself and he was of no mind to get into trouble even for a dinner of fresh eggs. He must first find out whose they were, and then he would know better what to do. He felt sure that no one else knew about them, and he knew that they couldn't run away. So he kept right on flying until he reached a certain tall pine tree, where he could sit and think without being disturbed."

"Eggs," he muttered. "Real eggs. Now when under the sun can have moved into Redtail's old house, and what can they mean by laying eggs before Mistress Spring has even sent word that she has started? It's too much for me. It certainly is too much for me."

He flew on toward the tree in which was the great tumble-down nest of Redtail the Hawk he saw, and as he drew near he flew high, for Blacky is too shrewd and smart to take any chances. Not that he thought that there could be any danger there, but you can never tell and it is always the part of wisdom to be on the safe side. As he passed over the top of the tree he looked down eagerly. Just imagine how he felt when instead of one he saw two white things in the old nest, two white things that looked looked for all the world like eggs. The day before there had been but one and now there were two. That settled it in Blacky's mind. They were eggs. They couldn't be anything else.

Blacky kept right on flying. Somehow he didn't dare stop just then. "It was too much excited by what he had discovered to think clearly. He had got to have time to get his wife together. Who ever had had those eggs was big and strong. He felt sure a great deal bigger than himself and he was of no mind to get into trouble even for a dinner of fresh eggs. He must first find out whose they were, and then he would know better what to do. He felt sure that no one else knew about them, and he knew that they couldn't run away. So he kept right on flying until he reached a certain tall pine tree, where he could sit and think without being disturbed."

"Eggs," he muttered. "Real eggs. Now when under the sun can have moved into Redtail's old house, and what can they mean by laying eggs before Mistress Spring has even sent word that she has started? It's too much for me. It certainly is too much for me."

He flew on toward the tree in which was the great tumble-down nest of Redtail the Hawk he saw, and as he drew near he flew high, for Blacky is too shrewd and smart to take any chances. Not that he thought that there could be any danger there, but you can never tell and it is always the part of wisdom to be on the safe side. As he passed over the top of the tree he looked down eagerly. Just imagine how he felt when instead of one he saw two white things in the old nest, two white things that looked looked for all the world like eggs. The day before there had been but one and now there were two. That settled it in Blacky's mind. They were eggs. They couldn't be anything else.

Blacky kept right on flying. Somehow he didn't dare stop just then. "It was too much excited by what he had discovered to think clearly. He had got to have time to get his wife together. Who ever had had those eggs was big and strong. He felt sure a great deal bigger than himself and he was of no mind to get into trouble even for a dinner of fresh eggs. He must first find out whose they were, and then he would know better what to do. He felt sure that no one else knew about them, and he knew that they couldn't run away. So he kept right on flying until he reached a certain tall pine tree, where he could sit and think without being disturbed."

"Eggs," he muttered. "Real eggs. Now when under the sun can have moved into Redtail's old house, and what can they mean by laying eggs before Mistress Spring has even sent word that she has started? It's too much for me. It certainly is too much for me."

He flew on toward the tree in which was the great tumble-down nest of Redtail the Hawk he saw, and as he drew near he flew high, for Blacky is too shrewd and smart to take any chances. Not that he thought that there could be any danger there, but you can never tell and it is always the part of wisdom to be on the safe side. As he passed over the top of the tree he looked down eagerly. Just imagine how he felt when instead of one he saw two white things in the old nest, two white things that looked looked for all the world like eggs. The day before there had been but one and now there were two. That settled it in Blacky's mind. They were eggs. They couldn't be anything else.

Blacky kept right on flying. Somehow he didn't dare stop just then. "It was too much excited by what he had discovered to think clearly. He had got to have time to get his wife together. Who ever had had those eggs was big and strong. He felt sure a great deal bigger than himself and he was of no mind to get into trouble even for a dinner of fresh eggs. He must first find out whose they were, and then he would know better what to do. He felt sure that no one else knew about them, and he knew that they couldn't run away. So he kept right on flying until he reached a certain tall pine tree, where he could sit and think without being disturbed."

"Eggs," he muttered. "Real eggs. Now when under the sun can have moved into Redtail's old house, and what can they mean by laying eggs before Mistress Spring has even sent word that she has started? It's too much for me. It certainly is too much for me."

He flew on toward the tree in which was the great tumble-down nest of Redtail the Hawk he saw, and as he drew near he flew high, for Blacky is too shrewd and smart to take any chances. Not that he thought that there could be any danger there, but you can never tell and it is always the part of wisdom to be on the safe side. As he passed over the top of the tree he looked down eagerly. Just imagine how he felt when instead of one he saw two white things in the old nest, two white things that looked looked for all the world like eggs. The day before there had been but one and now there were two. That settled it in Blacky's mind. They were eggs. They couldn't be anything else.

Blacky kept right on flying. Somehow he didn't dare stop just then. "It was too much excited by what he had discovered to think clearly. He had got to have time to get his wife together. Who ever had had those eggs was big and strong. He felt sure a great deal bigger than himself and he was of no mind to get into trouble even for a dinner of fresh eggs. He must first find out whose they were, and then he would know better what to do. He felt sure that no one else knew about them, and he knew that they couldn't run away. So he kept right on flying until he reached a certain tall pine tree, where he could sit and think without being disturbed."

"Eggs," he muttered. "Real eggs. Now when under the sun can have moved into Redtail's old house, and what can they mean by laying eggs before Mistress Spring has even sent word that she has started? It's too much for me. It certainly is too much for me."

He flew on toward the tree in which was the great tumble-down nest of Redtail the Hawk he saw, and as he drew near he flew high, for Blacky is too shrewd and smart to take any chances. Not that he thought that there could be any danger there, but you can never tell and it is always the part of wisdom to be on the safe side. As he passed over the top of the tree he looked down eagerly. Just imagine how he felt when instead of one he saw two white things in the old nest, two white things that looked looked for all the world like eggs. The day before there had been but one and now there were two. That settled it in Blacky's mind. They were eggs. They couldn't be anything else.

Blacky kept right on flying. Somehow he didn't dare stop just then. "It was too much excited by what he had discovered to think clearly. He had got to have time to get his wife together. Who ever had had those eggs was big and strong. He felt sure a great deal bigger than himself and he was of no mind to get into trouble even for a dinner of fresh eggs. He must first find out whose they were, and then he would know better what to do. He felt sure that no one else knew about them, and he knew that they couldn't run away. So he kept right on flying until he reached a certain tall pine tree, where he could sit and think without being disturbed."

"Eggs," he muttered. "Real eggs. Now when under the sun can have moved into Redtail's old house, and what can they mean by laying eggs before Mistress Spring has even sent word that she has started? It's too much for me. It certainly is too much for me."

He flew on toward the tree in which was the great tumble-down nest of Redtail the Hawk he saw, and as he drew near he flew high, for Blacky is too shrewd and smart to take any chances. Not that he thought that there could be any danger there, but you can never tell and it is always the part of wisdom to be on the safe side. As he passed over the top of the tree he looked down eagerly. Just imagine how he felt when instead of one he saw two white things in the old nest, two white things that looked looked for all the world like eggs. The day before there had been but one and now there were two. That settled it in Blacky's mind. They were eggs. They couldn't be anything else.

Blacky kept right on flying. Somehow he didn't dare stop just then. "It was too much excited by what he had discovered to think clearly. He had got to have time to get his wife together. Who ever had had those eggs was big and strong. He felt sure a great deal bigger than himself and he was of no mind to get into trouble even for a dinner of fresh eggs. He must first find out whose they were, and then he would know better what to do. He felt sure that no one else knew about them, and he knew that they couldn't run away. So he kept right on flying until he reached a certain tall pine tree, where he could sit and think without being disturbed."

"Eggs," he muttered. "Real eggs. Now when under the sun can have moved into Redtail's old house, and what can they mean by laying eggs before Mistress Spring has even sent word that she has started? It's too much for me. It certainly is too much for me."

He flew on toward the tree in which was the great tumble-down nest of Redtail the Hawk he saw, and as he drew near he flew high, for Blacky is too shrewd and smart to take any chances. Not that he thought that there could be any danger there, but you can never tell and it is always the part of wisdom to be on the safe side. As he passed over the top of the tree he looked down eagerly. Just imagine how he felt when instead of one he saw two white things in the old nest, two white things that looked looked for all the world like eggs. The day before there had been but one and now there were two. That settled it in Blacky's mind. They were eggs. They couldn't be anything else.

Blacky kept right on flying. Somehow he didn't dare stop just then. "It was too much excited by what he had discovered to think clearly. He had got to have time to get his wife together. Who ever had had those eggs was big and strong. He felt sure a great deal bigger than himself and he was of no mind to get into trouble even for a dinner of fresh eggs. He must first find out whose they were, and then he would know better what to do. He felt sure that no one else knew about them, and he knew that they couldn't run away. So he kept right on flying until he reached a certain tall pine tree, where he could sit and think without being disturbed."

"Eggs," he muttered. "Real eggs. Now when under the sun can have moved into Redtail's old house, and what can they mean by laying eggs before Mistress Spring has even sent word that she has started? It's too much for me. It certainly is too much for me."

He flew on toward the tree in which was the great tumble-down nest of Redtail the Hawk he saw, and as he drew near he flew high, for Blacky is too shrewd and smart to take any chances. Not that he thought that there could be any danger there, but you can never tell and it is always the part of wisdom to be on the safe side. As he passed over the top of the tree he looked down eagerly. Just imagine how he felt when instead of one he saw two white things in the old nest, two white things that looked looked for all the world like eggs. The day before there had been but one and now there were two. That settled it in Blacky's mind. They were eggs. They couldn't be anything else.

Blacky kept right on flying. Somehow he didn't dare stop just then. "It was too much excited by what he had discovered to think clearly. He had got to have time to get his wife together. Who ever had had those eggs was big and strong. He felt sure a great deal bigger than himself and he was of no mind to get into trouble even for a dinner of fresh eggs. He must first find out whose they were, and then he would know better what to do. He felt sure that no one else knew about them, and he knew that they couldn't run away. So he kept right on flying until he reached a certain tall pine tree, where he could sit and think without being disturbed."

"Eggs," he muttered. "Real eggs. Now when under the sun can have moved into Redtail's old house, and what can they mean by laying eggs before Mistress Spring has even sent word that she has started? It's too much for me. It certainly is too much for me."

He flew on toward the tree in which was the great tumble-down nest of Redtail the Hawk he saw, and as he drew near he flew high, for Blacky is too shrewd and smart to take any chances. Not that he thought that there could be any danger there, but you can never tell and it is always the part of wisdom to be on the safe side. As he passed over the top of the tree he looked down eagerly. Just imagine how he felt when instead of one he saw two white things in the old nest, two white things that looked looked for all the world like eggs. The day before there had been but one and now there were two. That settled it in Blacky's mind. They were eggs. They couldn't be anything else.

Blacky kept right on flying. Somehow he didn't dare stop just then. "It was too much excited by what he had discovered to think clearly.

Columbus Club Protests Athletic Club's Claim to Southern Basketball Title

Columbus Five Disputes Claim Of Local Team

Manager Frank Bridges of Columbus Y. M. C. A. Basketball Team, Contests Claim of Athletic Club to Title of Southern Championship

The basketball season is not yet over, in spite of the fact that schedules have been almost played out, that players have turned their attention to other lines of sport, and the old uniforms have been salted away until the arrival of another season, the game is still being played. At present, however, the contest of skill, speed and endurance comes through correspondence, a chess, and a few other sports that can be played by mail.

The most spirited contest just at present is waged between Columbus and the Atlanta Athletic club, the latter being the victor in the series. The subject of contention just now is the title of southern champions, and the Columbus quintet contends the action of the local five in laying claim to first honors, manager Frank Bridges, of that team, has hurled the first domino, and has seen retaliation in kind. Below is given a bit of correspondence which has just passed between the two:

BRIDGES TO LITTLER.

Mr. Joe Bean, Atlanta, Ga.
Dear Joe: After winning from Birmingham Saturday I am now able to dispute your claim for the southern championship. I have won all the games in Atlanta and the only game I won was in Atlanta, and in return won over the road in Marion, Auburn, Athens, Atlanta and Columbus.

The above being facts, the only way to decide who are the champions is to play the tie off on a neutral floor.

The Birmingham Athletic club is willing to stage the game on their floor and we are willing to play you there or on any other neutral floor.

If you hope to put in a claim for the championship, it is up to you to defend your claim by the way off and if you fail to play we will claim the championship as ours by default.

As to the official for the game, Mr. M. J. Donahue will suit me. Trusting you will come out and give us battle, and appreciating a prompt reply, I am, (Signed), FRANK B. BRIDGES.

P. S. I have had copies of this letter made, and should like to have to play, will send all the leading papers a copy.

BRIDGES'S REPLY.

Mr. Frank B. Bridges, Atlanta, Ga.

Your letter of March 2 forwarded to me in Athens, I was very much surprised at the tone of the letter. My contact at the Atlanta Athletic club explains the tone of the letter, and since that time I have been in Athens and basketball at the club is a thing of the past. I am now putting our openly claimed championship I have this to show.

As to the custom for years to make but two road trips, one to Columbus and the other to Birmingham where we annually meet these respective teams, we of course followed the same course during the past season. We were defeated by the team of the score of 45-25. Our game in Birmingham resulted in a win by the score of 25-20.

Our team and Birmingham team were overwhelmingly defeated in the game. Other teams followed the same route. Our claim to the championship was not disputed by any team when we were in Atlanta, in the game.

It might also say that we are anxious to present each member of our team with a souvenir emblem, and that the championship is not won through the mail but more so by public opinion. We are willing to stand on our record for the season and allow the public to form its own opinion of our claim.

I might also say that we are anxious to present each member of our team with a souvenir emblem, and that the championship is not won through the mail but more so by public opinion. We are willing to stand on our record for the season and allow the public to form its own opinion of our claim.

Yours truly,
JOE BEAN.

Yankee Battery Men Join Squad

SAVANNAH, Ga., March 9.—Pitchers Seating, Caldwell, Cole, Warlick, Brown and Catchers Sweeney and Nunn arrived here yesterday from Hot Springs, Ark., and joined the other members of the New York Americans who are doing their spring training here. Manager Donovan expressed himself as much pleased with the condition of his veteran battery men. Infielder Aranson, a young Cuban signed by Donovan, joined the squad Monday. Pitchers Martin, McFate and Infielder Bauman, purchased from Brooklyn, are expected to join the squad today.

Two New Cities For Kitty League

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., March 9.—The Kentucky, Illinois and Tennessee baseball league, composed of Paducah, Henderson, Owensboro, Ky., and Cairo, Ill., and Louisville and Harris, Ill., to be part of the league of the Kitty League, which is to be organized at Princeton, Ky., according to several telegrams.

Two additional clubs will be added from Marion, Mo., and Springfield, Ill., and Fulton, Ky., to the organization to enter the league extended.

N. W. Cox, of Cairo, Ill., was president and secretary. It was decided to open the season at Princeton, Ky.

Cobb Pays Friendly Visit to Reb. Oakes

CHICAGO, Ga., March 9.—Ty Cobb spent today a while at Warren park Monday afternoon talking with Manager Oakes of the Pittsburgh Federal League invited Cobb to "work out a bit" with the "outlaws" of the Federal League. Cobb declined the invitation. Reese Addington, counsel for the Federal League, arrived here yesterday and was at the park during the afternoon.

DIANADILPICLES

Choice of Baugh Is Popular Here

Atlanta Fans Pleased With Election of Birmingham Man—Serves Until December

BY GRANTLAND RICE

IN THE TRAINING CAMP.

Side by side on the bench

The Rookie and Veteran sat:

Spinning the Old Dope out.

Talking of this and that;

But each with a Vision ahead.

And probing the souls of each

These are the dreams I read:

The Rookie dreamed of the glare

That rose from the Fields of Fame;

And the dream of the veteran was

Far flung at the old star's fame;

Of a record that met the test

And echoed a city's cheer;

Of the glory the Veteran knew

In the laurelled field of the years.

But looking another way.

Far out from the Game's renown,

Built up from the golden years

And framed with the olive crown—

Forgetting the record span.

And facing the dreary trail

Still rubbing a wornout arm.

The Veteran dreamed of Youth.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

Choice of Baugh Is Popular Here

Atlanta Fans Pleased With Election of Birmingham Man—Serves Until December

BY GRANTLAND RICE

IN THE TRAINING CAMP.

Side by side on the bench

The Rookie and Veteran sat:

Spinning the Old Dope out.

Talking of this and that;

But each with a Vision ahead.

And probing the souls of each

These are the dreams I read:

The Rookie dreamed of the glare

That rose from the Fields of Fame;

And the dream of the veteran was

Far flung at the old star's fame;

Of a record that met the test

And echoed a city's cheer;

Of the glory the Veteran knew

In the laurelled field of the years.

But looking another way.

Far out from the Game's renown,

Built up from the golden years

And framed with the olive crown—

Forgetting the record span.

And facing the dreary trail

Still rubbing a wornout arm.

The Veteran dreamed of Youth.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

Bunch of Dough Was Feds' Boast

Backers of Kansas City Club at Injunction Hearing Claim League Promised Financial Help If Needed

BY INNIS BROWN

IN THE TRAINING CAMP.

Side by side on the bench

The Rookie and Veteran sat:

Spinning the Old Dope out.

Talking of this and that;

But each with a Vision ahead.

And probing the souls of each

These are the dreams I read:

The Rookie dreamed of the glare

That rose from the Fields of Fame;

And the dream of the veteran was

Far flung at the old star's fame;

Of a record that met the test

And echoed a city's cheer;

Of the glory the Veteran knew

In the laurelled field of the years.

But looking another way.

Far out from the Game's renown,

Built up from the golden years

And framed with the olive crown—

Forgetting the record span.

And facing the dreary trail

Still rubbing a wornout arm.

The Veteran dreamed of Youth.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

And the Rookie dreamed of Fame.

Bunch of Dough Was Feds' Boast

Backers of Kansas City Club at Injunction Hearing Claim League Promised Financial Help If Needed

BY INNIS BROWN

IN THE TRAINING CAMP.

Side by side on the bench

The Rookie and Veteran sat:

Spinning the Old Dope out.

Talking of this and that;

But each with a Vision ahead.

And probing the souls of each

These are the dreams I read:

The Rookie dreamed of the glare

That rose from the Fields of Fame;

And the dream of the veteran was

Far flung at the old star's fame;

Of a record that met the test

And echoed a city's cheer;

Of the glory the Veteran knew

In the laurelled field of the years.

But looking another way.

HENRY B. KENNEDY, Cashier. day of March, 1915.

The Atlanta Journal
For the Year 1914
Daily
1914	59,100
1913	57,531
	Gain
Sunday

[illegible]

BY MAIL.
To any address in the United States and possessions and Mexico	1 year, $1.00
5 copies annual Sunday	One year, $1.00
5 copies only	One year, $1.00
5 copies weekly	One year, $1.00
BY CARRIERS:
Daily and Sunday	Per Week, $1.00
Daily without Sunday	Per Week, $1.00
Daily without Sunday	Per Month, $1.00
SINGLE COPIES:
Daily
Sunday

LOST AND FOUND

LOST—Away from Corvallis, Ga. We have a 15-year-old male, short-haired, black and white, blue eyes; and black ears, dark complexion and black eyes. He will climb walls and fences and is everywhere. A. L. Garland, Corvallis, Ga. 99301.

LOST—On Decatur car line Saturday afternoon 5:30, gold mesh bag containing 12 eggs. If anyone has seen it, return to Mrs. M. Goldsmith, 16 Central street, Decatur, Ga.

LOST—Saturday night about 12 o'clock, a dark suit out of Ardville, Ga. Park and garage. Finder will please call H. Starnes, phone Main 5015; at Ardville, Ga.

LOST—Saturday afternoon on Peachtree car line, some good quality hair, brown and black. Return to Mrs. J. H. Starnes, 16 Central street, Decatur, Ga.

E. Linden ave. Phone IVY 7883-J.

LOST—Saturday, envelope containing $100 between Alabama and Garnett street. Please notify J. B. Bobo, care Bell laundry.

LOST—Monday on Edgewood avenue near Hurt building and Nunnally's, Mason blem pin. Main 4568-J.

LOST—About February 19th, a male seal white and liver colored, end of tail IVY 50.

LOST—Saturday, ladies' diamond ring, in eal reward. Call West 1154-J.

LOST—Irish setter name "Dixie."

WANTED—BOARDERS
STRICTLY EXCLUSIVE BOARD—location and large, comfortable room private bath. Excellent table board; best to business. 37 Capitol square,
Main St.

WANTED—Two or three young men to board near 22 and 24 E. Ellis. Ten dollars a month. Stationary washstands, rooms. Hot bath at all times. Call Ivy 125 WASHINGTON ST.
SELECT boarding; good location. M.
22 AND 24 E. ELLIS—8 ROOMS, excellent board, 55 up. Ivy
WANTED—Roommate for young man, heat, electric light, hot water, board. 26 Ponce de Leon ave. Ivy 71
WANTED—Two young men to board with family. High school level. 1000

THOSE desiring board in private home located in 7400 Pinedale Leon ave. lvy 8341. Garage accommodation.

TWO gentlemen or a couple in secure full board with family of three on Leon ave. Phone lvy 8089-J.

ONE nicely furnished light room with out board; all conveniences. Mrs. Moore, 100 Courtland street.

IN INMAN PARK, beautiful furnished excellent meals. Private home. All lences. lvy 5444.

TWO elegant front rooms, private bath, private home, Peachtree street. Ivy 9673

BEAUTIFULLY furnished rooms with private class board; home cooking. 602 Peachtree. W 9674

ANYONE desiring excellent table board, same at 188 W. Peachtree st. Ivy 3

PEACHTREE INN—Room and board at table rates. Good table. 351 Peachtree. W 9675

NICE ROOMS—Board if desired; close conveniences. 120 Ivy st. Ivy 9676

SELECT room and board; reasonable every convenience; near In. 4812-3

FOR couple or two gentlemen, strictly home; nice room. Phone IV 4433.

FRONT room with board; reasonable. Fifteenth st., phone IV 3798-L.

BOARD and modern conveniences. 2 E st., Inman Park. IV 6395-L.

NICELY furnished rooms and board. 0 from terminal. 73 Nelson st.

NICE room and board, one single room double room. IV 7935-J.

ATTRACTIVE rate for three gentlemen conveniences. IV 7592-L.

NICELY furnished rooms, with good

FOR RENT—APARTMENT
Unfurnished
WEST END, modern upper flat of six includes breakfast room and sleeping separate entrance, best neighborhood worth $40. Phone West 1144-3.

ELIZABETH 4-room apartment, steam heat for service and all modern conveniences
Forrest avenue. Apply premises, 12

Furnished
FURNISHED kitchenette apartment, new furnished, references required. Modern kitchenette, and close in. Prices right. A K. Harris street.

Furnished or Unfurnished
OWNER will sub-lease to business or two trained nurses, all or part of five-room, north side apartment. Main

FIVE lovely rooms, delightfully located
Ivy 4744-1.

OFFICE SPACE

WITH STOREROOM in connection that can be used with any small line of business; phone connection; reasonable rent. Apply phone Ivy 5538, 104 North Pryor street.

HALF of large office with phone and writer, $32.50; or desk space with room, $6.00. Address Equitable Bldg., care Journal.

SUITE OFFICES, furnished or unfurnished. Empire building, cheap. Call Ivy 1

